COX MEN LOSE ON VOTE TO DROP LOW MAN

FUN REIGNS IN OAKLAND FOR FOURTH

Care Free Thousands Halt Pursuit of Pleasure for Big Tribute to Solemn Significance of Independence Day

Lake Merritt Shores Teem With Carnival Spectators, While Many Throng Auditorium for Big Program

Patriotic services at the Auditorium and a carnival of boating sports on Lake Merritt, beginning at 2 o'clock, with fireworks, an illuminated parade on the Lake and a ball at the Auditorium at 8 p. m are the features in Oakland's Fourth of July celebration today.

At the same time that the big crowd in the Auditorium stood under the folds of hundreds of American flags singing the national anthem to the accompaniment of a brass band, a crowd almost equally as large gathered on the shores of Lake Merritt to see the aquatic sports begin with the men's singles rowboat race.

No sooner had the auditorium audience seated itself after the singing, than Henderson's orchestra swung into an overture, a fantasie of American airs. And almost at the same time, event No. 2, or the women's singles canoe race was started on the lake, which by this time was crowded with pleasure craft and surrounded by a laughing, shouting throng.

SAILORS AND MARINES ARE PRESENT.

More than 1000 sailors and marines from the Pacific fleet, Mare Island and Goat Island, added to the crowd both in Oakland and at Idora Park.

Following the invocation by Rabbi Harvey B. Franklin, a song, "My Own United States," by C. H. Oliver, introductory remarks by W. E. Gibson, the playing of "Columbia, the Gem of the Ocean," by the Masonic quartet, reading of the Declaration of Independence by L. D. Inskeep, recitation of a poem, "Ghost of an Old Continental," by Fred Emerson Brooks and a solo by Mabel H. Turner, former E-Governor George C. Pardee delivered the principal address of the day.

Pardee touched the patriotic shords in the breasts of the thousands present, evoking continuous applause, when he pictured the grandeur and glory of the American people as a mighty nation, grown out of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776.

After the oration, the Masonic quartet sang "When the Flag Goes By" and the meeting came to a close when all arose and sang "America."

In the meantime the boat and canoe races on the lake were in progress. The women's single canoe race and the men's doubles rowboat race were followed by the boys' tub race, which created great amusement, the men's singles canoe race, the women's doubles canoe race and the free-for-all comedy canoe race. In this event men tumbled out of their canoes, furnishing great amusement when they tried to ride across the finish line standing with one foot on each gunwale. When the unfortunate got a ducking he had to go back to the starting point. The canoe-tilting contest, in which two men in each canoe battled with the occupants of other canoes with tilting poles to upset and overthrow their antagonists, resulted in many duckings.

CELEBRATION FOR TONIGHT

The day's celebration will end with the ball at the Municipal Auditorium at 8:30 and lasting until midnight.

The executive committee in charge of the official Fourth of July program consists of P. N. Hanrahan, chairman, and Theodore Gier, A. Schlueter and Wilbur Walker. On the honorary reception committee is Mayor Davie, Commissioners W. J. Baccus, R. W. Edwards, F. F. Morse and Fred Soderburg, Supervisors J. F. Mullins, C. W. Meyer, W. B. Hamilton, D. J. Murphy and R. C. Staats.

Other committeemen are: Literary, W. E. Gibson, L. D. Inskeep, J. H. MacLafferty, Wilbur Walker; evening ball, Harry G. Williams, J. J. Mullarky, Henry Vogt, George W. Phillips, Walter White, E. F. Garrison, J. J. Dignan, George Barron, W. H. Manning, Willis Edwards, H. Wadsworth; lake, afternoon, W. H. Graham, R. C. Bitterman, Lynne Stanley, J. B. Nash, F. L. Bacon, Mrs. A. Mosher, Mrs. G. F. Carl, H. Love.

"How Broke I Am" Is Delegates' Song; Many Start Home

AUDITORIUM, San Francisco, July 5.—The song of the convention delegates, "How Dry I Am," has been changed. It is "How Broke I Am." That is because the convention did not end Saturday as everybody had expected that it would.

Every ticket office official was busy over Sunday rearranging schedules of accommodations and there are numbers of sleeping cars in railroad yards filling storage space.

A good many delegates did leave Saturday, regardless. The number, however, probably will not appear in the voting today since proxies were left, alternates filled the vacancies or the delegations, cut down, are operating under the unit rule.

Al Wood Jr. And Friend Drown As Boat Is Upset

Two Men Lose Lives in the Sacramento River; Companions Are Rescued.

Al Wood Jr., member of the firm of Al Wood & Bro., painters, 922 Broadway, and Edwin Winfeldt of Hayward, were drowned Sunday morning at 11 o'clock when a boat in which they were riding on the San Joaquin river at Paradise Cut, six miles from Tracy, upset. Leonard Moreno and Ed Harry who were with them, were saved.

Wood, aged 35, is the son of Mrs. George Logan, who lives on Thirteenth avenue, Oakland. He has been living with his brother, Walter Wood, on Dana street.

A telegram conveying the news of the tragedy to friends and relatives of the men here, was received last night from Tracy by Miss Alice Thompson, bookkeeper for the paint store. The bodies are held at the Stockton morgue.

The four men were only twenty feet from the shore when their boat overturned, Wood and Winfeldt sank instantly.

POLICE SCHOOL IS NEW MOVE IN CRIME WAR

A school in elementary criminology as a strategic move in the Oakland police department's war on crime will be established for patrolmen. Classes will begin at city hall next week. The courses are being organized by Chief Lynch and Lieutenant W. F. Woods.

"Spectroscopic analyses and incursions into the psyhcology of crime will be delayed for practical lessons in general police work," Chief Lynch said. "We will instruct policemen in the rules of evidence and teach them to recognize and safeguard it. The lessons also will include instruction in simple English, which wi ll be valuable in compiling reports."

Women Seeking Aid to Carry On Fight

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Realizing that the suffrage fight in Tennessee will be bitter, $10,000 has been appealed for to carry the campaign on behalf of the federal amendment over the top. Miss Alice Paul, chairman of the National Woman's Party, has sponsored the demand. She has made an individual appeal to the 50,000 members of the organization for financial assistance at the request of the Tennessee branch.

The special session of the Tennessee legislature is called for August 9. According to Miss Sue White, suffrage leader in that state, opponents of the amendment are massing strength and a thorough campaign is necessary, if the women are to gain a victory.

"Hoodoo" Again Halts Transport Mt. Vernon

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—The "hoodoo" that has pursued the army transport Mount Vernon that was en route to Hamburg with German prisoners and Serbian soldiers forced her to give up the trip at Norfolk, Va. She put into the Brooklyn navy yard for repairs.

When the big transport, formerly the German liner Kronprinzessen Cecilie, first left here for Siberia she had to put back to port because of a fire in the hold. Ever since then the doodoo has followed it and there have been mutinies, suicides and accidents aboard her, while on Pacific trips.

Bryan Steals Rest As Ballot Is Taken

EXPOSITION AUDITORIUM, San Francisco, July 5.—Like a general snatching a moment's rest during battle, William Jennings Bryan remained stretched on a hard, wooden table in the rear of the platform while the twenty-third ballot was being taken.

"Politics is a great game," he said, as he closed his eyes.

STATE JAMS HOME TOWN FOR HARDING

Party Lines Are Forgotten As Townsmen and Visitors From Ohio Wait to Honor Nominee of Republicans

Marion American Legion and Civic Association to Head Throng Which Will Gather at His Residence Tonight

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

MARION, O., July 5. — Senator Harding came home today. He has come home on many other days, but this day he returns as the most highly honored of his fellow townspeople, the candidate of the Republican party for President of the United States. He arrived at 2:50 o'clock this afternoon.

Marion Democrats have cast aside for the time being their party affiliations and joined with the Republicans as fellow townspeople and neighbors of the Republican to welcome him home. The welcome is not a Marion affair solely. His friends in all sections of the State are sharing in it. The city is fairly bulging with visitors.

VISITORS THRONGING TO WELCOME SENATOR

There was little outward appearance at the Harding home that the Senator's arrival was expected. A large American flag displayed on the front porch, said by his friends to have been placed there more in keeping with Independence Day than for the presidential candidate, was the only decoration.

At the home of his secretary, Geo. B. Christian, adjoining, which has been turned into an administration building for the campaign, the only decoration was a Harding picture in the window.

The explosion of firecrackers began before the sun had made its appearance.

Country folk began to arrive with the break of day in automobiles from all directions.

CIVIC ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT SPEAKER

The formal welcome to Senator and Mrs. Harding will not be given until 6 o'clock this evening, a few hours' rest first being accorded them after their arrival. At that hour the crowd will march from downtown to the Harding home, where the ceremonies will be held on the front porch.

D. R. Crissinger, president of the Marion Civic Association, will deliver the formal address of welcome on the part of Marion citizens, and Senator Harding will respond.

The celebration will be continued by the American Legion tonight with a fireworks display.

24 Prisoners Flee; Four Are Recaptured

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

INDIANAPOLIS, July 5.—Four of the 24 prisoners who escaped from the Marion county jail early this morning have been recaptured. The prisoners escaped about 1 o'clock after knocking unconscious the night jailer with an iron bar sawed from a cell, unlocking several cell doors with his keys and walking out the main entrance of the building, which is just across the street from police headquarters.

Third Party Seen by Senator Owen

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—A third party was predicted today by Senator Robert L. Owen of Oklahoma, candidate for the Democratic nomination. Unless the San Francisco convention can get together, he said, on a genuine progressive, its nominee's chances of winning next November would be materially lessened through a new party coming into the field and causing defections.

LONDON, July 5.—The American ambassador, John W. Davis did not spend the week-end in the country as he had planned. While no explanation was made, it was presumed that his interest in the balloting at San Francisco kept him in London, where he would be in closer touch with American political developments.

Nebraskan Issues Statement On Issues As Balloting Goes On; Says Liquor, Wall St., White House Can't Agree

Slight Flurry for Underwood Fails to Gain a Following; Iowans Hold for Cox in the Face of Great Pressure

AUDITORIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Friends of Governor James M. Cox of Ohio made an unsuccessful attempt to break the deadlock existing in the Democratic National Convention at 2 o'clock this afternoon by a suspension of rules.

Under the proposition submitted by Senator Harrison of Mississippi, one of Cox's floor managers, the candidate receiving the least number of votes on each ballot, following the thirtieth, was to have been dropped and held ineligible for voting. This would have narrowed the field down ultimately to two candidates. The managers of every candidate instantly objected and a roll call vote was taken. The motion was lost, 256 to 820½.

This maneuver had followed the seventh ballot of the day when Indiana slid for McAdoo, followed by enough votes to take him into the lead over Governor Cox.

NINTH SESSION PUT UNDER WAY

Chairman Robinson called the Democratic convention to order at 10:08 o'clock this morning to resume balloting on a presidential nominee.

The convention was opened with silent prayer and then was led in the recitation of the Lord's prayer by Porter V. Ross, Christian Science practitioner. The singing of the "Star Spangled Banner" followed.

By unanimous consent the Declaration of Independence was read to the convention by former Governor Ralston of Indiana. While the reading was going on several leaders conferred.

Many of the delegate seats were filled by alternates and there were new sets of faces in many of the caucuses and conferences. The McAdoo people turned considerable attention to Maryland, where Josephus W. Miles of Baltimore, internal revenue collector, was a leader. There were many empty seats in the New York delegation, and it was said that both delegates and alternates had left for home. The same situation prevailed in the delegations of some other eastern states. Delegation chairmen, however, were prepared to cast the full votes by proxy.

LITTLE ATTENTION PAID TO DOCUMENT

Governor Ralston, who reminded many of President Cleveland, as he stood reading, was all but drowned out by the buzz and rumble.

While the reading was on Virginia caucused on the flood and decided to stick with Glass.

At 10:32 Chairman Robinson ordered the roll call of states and the report of ballots began.

As the balloting progressed, it was apparent that there was no material change. Some jokers among the delegates gave Ring Lardner a half a vote and Irwin Cobb a vote and a half. McAdoo picked up seven votes in Nebraska that had been going to Cox and also gained 4 in New York. South Dakota shifted all its strength to Palmer, who showed a gain of 14½ votes over the last ballot Saturday.

During the balloting a woman in the gallery screamed repeatedly: "Owen is the man!"

The result showed McAdoo lost 8 votes, Cox 5.

The twenty-fourth ballot was ordered as the official count was made known. When Iowa was called on the next roll call, the state passed, the delegates being in caucus. Iowa has been voting 26 ballots for Cox steadily.

During the twenty-fourth ballot, E. M. Moore, Cox's manager; Charles Murphy of Tammany Hall, and Wilbur Marsh of Iowa, all of whose delegates are voting for Cox, left the hall for a conference. Iowa passed while an effort was made to swing its vote to McAdoo, but when it finally voted it was cast for Cox, as usual.

When Virginia voted for Glass as usual there were cries of "put on a new record." There was growing irritation among delegates at the attitude of favorite son states which refused to change. The changes showed Cox gained four, McAdoo no change and Palmer lost three and a half.

BRYAN OUTLINES DEADLOCK ISSUE

After the count William Jennings Bryan issued the following statement:

> I think what they are really looking for is someone who will be satisfactory to the three elements represented in the deadlock; some one who will respond without protest to every demand that comes from the White House,

Allied, German Delegates Are Gathered at Spa

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

SPA, Belgium, July 5.—Allied and German delegates to the conference to be held here this week met this morning for their first session, which lasted only twenty minutes. Adjournment was then taken until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Konstantin Fehrenbach, German chancellor and head of the country's delegation, kept the allied premiers waiting for ten minutes, being late reaching Villa Fraineuse, where the conference is being held. Premier Millerand of France was prompt as usual, being the first to arrive. Count Sforsea, Italian foreign minister, was next to arrive, being followed by Viscount Chinda, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain. Premier Lloyd George was the last of the allied representatives to reach the villa. He wore a shining silk hat, but Premier Millerand appeared wearing the democratic felt hat familiar to those who know him.

BELGIUM PREMIER OPENS CONFERENCE

The conference was declared open by M. Delacroix, the Belgium premier, who presided. M. Delacroix read the order of business as follows: "First, procedure; second disarmament; third, reparations; and, fourth, those guilty of war crimes."

Herr Fehrenbach signified his approval of the order of business and procedure, saying in his reply to M. Delacroix that he was glad of this opportunity to meet and talk with the allies.

The German chancellor declared he had come to the conference with the intention of executing the treaty of Versailles. M. Delacroix then referred to the notes regarding disarmament, presented by the allies to Germany and asked what reply the Germans had to make.

PRIVATE CONFERENCE BETWEEN LEADERS

Herr Fehrenbach said that the war minister and Major-General von Seecht, chief of the German general staff, who were expected to attend the conference, had not yet arrived. He suggested that in their absence Dr. Walter Simons, the foreign minister, be permitted to make some observations on the subject.

Premiers Millerand, Lloyd George and Delacroix retired for a private conference on this question, after which Lloyd George said the allies saw no object in discussing disarmament with any one excepting those who were responsible. He proposed that the conference adjourn until these two delegates should arrive and it was decided to suspend the session until 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

Tariff, As Issue, Dead, Platforms Indicate

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—The tariff, century-old issue, is dead as campaign thunder, Democratic leaders said today. That is the reason the Democratic platform dismissed its reaffirmation of the party's traditional tariff for revenue only. The Republicans, in their platform, carried only a perfunctory reference to a protective tariff.

Deputies Battle Miners; Deaths Occur In Clash

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 5.—Three McDowell county deputy sheriffs were shot late yesterday at Roderfield, W. Va., during a clash between the officers and miners, according to information received here by state officials. The advices received here were to the effect that the fighting at Roderfield was still in progress and United Mine Workers of America officers said they had been advised by their attorney at Williamson, Thomas West, to request that state troops be rushed to the scene.

One of the deputies reported wounded was said to have been shot in the head, while the other two were declared not to have been seriously hurt.

According to the reports received by state officials here, the shooting began when the deputies arrived at Roderfield, where the miners were said to have started an independent organization movement last Saturday.

C. F. Keeney, district president of the United Mine Workers, announced that he had received a telegram from B. R. Page, organizer at Williamson, stating that the fighting at Roderfield had lasted three hours and that a number of miners had been killed. Later, Keeney was advised by Attorney West, that the battle was still in progress.

There are no United Mine Workers in McDowell county, but miners there recently requested permission to become affiliated with the union, Keeney said. They were advised to continue to organize, but were warned that they should not cease work while so doing, the union leader continued.

Democratic Women Are Seeking Recruits

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—For the purpose of amalgamating the interests of the women of the nation under Democratic leadership Mrs. George Bass, chairman of the women's bureau, national Democratic committee, called a special meeting last night at the Palace hotel.

The women who have declared no party affiliation will be invited to enroll on the Democratic rostes. Mrs. Bass declared that the many Republican women who will vote the Democratic ticket at the November election must have full information regarding the principles of that party.

Leaders in the organization of the party forces are: Miss Elizabeth Marbury, New York; Miss Louise Clay, Kentucky; Miss Mary Foy, California; Mrs. Robert E. Lee Jewett, California; Mrs. Thomas M. Walsh, District of Columbia; Mrs. John Weir Troy, Alaska; Mrs. Charles Williams, Tennessee.

TACOMA, Wash., July 5.—Ralph de Palma and his French car will be in the field at Tacoma Speedway for the ninth annual race this afternoon. The broken connecting rod had put De Palma's car out of the race, but at the last moment he declared himself ready.

The race will be for 225 miles and will begin at 2 p. m. The purse is $22,500, and $10,000 goes to the driver finishing in first place. The driver in second place will receive $5000, and the remainder of the purse will go to the next five men to finish. Out of twelve men in the field the first seven receive the purse.

All drivers have qualified at speed averaging 89 miles to 99 miles an hour, with practice laps at 100 miles and speed in front of the grandstand at 115 miles an hour.

Japan Makes Study of Mexican Farming

MEXICO CITY, July 5.—A special commissioner from Japan is now in this country investigating exclusively the methods of cultivating and handling sugar cane, henequen, cotton and all fibre plants produced in the republic, with a view to their introduction into Japan. According to Mexican officials, this is in keeping with the announced policy of the Japanese government to secure all possible information regarding the industries and products of Mexico in whatever line. After leaving here the commissioner will visit South American countries on a similar mission.

Back Cox, McAdoo, Tennesseans Urge

FIRST BREAK COMES AFTER SIX BALLOTS

Washington Falls Into Line, With Hoosiers for Son-in-Law, But Gain Is Not Sufficient to Nominate on 29th

Demonstration Starts Over Change in Line-up: Understanding Is Indiana Will Go Back to Cox If Effort Fails

AUDITORIUM, SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—A drive to nominate W. G. McAdoo was launched in the Democratic National Convention shortly after 1 p. m. today.

Indiana, which had been voting Cox 19, McAdoo 11, swung to the McAdoo on the twenty-ninth ballot, giving him 29 votes and Davis 1.

This was believed to be the beginning of the effort to put over McAdoo, his managers claiming to have assurances from Georgia that that delegation would vote for McAdoo also.

When Indiana cast 29 votes for McAdoo, the McAdoo supporters were thrown into a delirium of joy. This represented a gain in Indiana over the last ballot of 19 votes and a corresponding loss for Cox.

The understanding with Tom Taggart was that if a big McAdoo movement failed to develop on two or three ballots, the Indiana votes would be withdrawn.

Washington McAdoo delegates said their state expected to swing 17 votes to McAdoo.

Despite a slide Indiana votes to McAdoo on the twenty-ninth ballot, the Cox lines held fast, and it was apparent there would be no nomination on the ballot.

WOMEN PLAN PICKETS FOR HARDING HOME

MARION, Ohio, July 5—Plans for picketing Senator Harding's home and headquarters here in case Vermont fails to ratify the federal suffrage amendment are being planned by suffragist leaders, it has become known. It is understood that the suffragist leaders have conditionally taken over one of the fraternity houses of Ohio Wesleyan University students at Delaware, twenty miles from here, to be used as a dormitory and headquarters. The fraternity house will accommodate about thirty-six people.

The reason for establishing headquarters at Delaware instead of at Marion is understood to be on account of inability to obtain adequate quarters here.

Fireworks Display to Wind Up Rally

ALAMEDA, July 5.—With a program consisting of speaking, musical numbers and aquatic sports, ending with a huge fireworks' display, Alameda will celebrate the Fourth of July tonight at Neptune beach.

Under the auspices of the Alameda Improvement club, Mayor Frank Otis will preside as chairman of the evening, while Misses Clara Wellington and Katherine Sullivan will appear as soloists, Eugene Blanchard of Oakland will lead in community singing, and officers of the improvement club will direct the water races, awarding cups and medals to the winners.

Miss Lorinda Hickman will apply the torch to a big American flag set piece, which will burst into the colors of red, white and blue as a concluding event of the night. No admission will be charged to the beach grounds after 7 p. m.

FRANCE HONORS U. S. HERO DEAD

PARIS, July 5.—Twenty thousand orphans of France, whose fathers gave up their lives in the great war, filed past Hugh C. Wallace, the American ambassador, in the Tuileries gardens this morning, dipping miniature American flags as a tribute to the United States on Independence day. Undaunted by the driving rain, the little tots, shouting "Vive l'Amerique" marched from the Place de la Concorde to the Tuileries. Ambassador Wallace said after the ceremony that it was a most impressive and touching manifestation.

"The future of France lies in such children, the sons and daughters of the glorious soldiers who fought and died under the immortal leadership of Marshal Joffre and his successors," the ambassador declared in a short address.

The annual ceremony at Lafayette's tomb in Picpus cemetery was held and wreaths placed on the tomb of the marquis.

Paris was decorated with French and American flags. They were entwined on the Bank of France, the ministry of finance and all the public buildings. It was noticed that the French academy, which seldom is decorated, was extensively bedecked with the Stars and Stripes and the Tri-Color of France.

Cordial Independence day greetings to the American people were cabled President Wilson by Premier Millerand yesterday.

Two Are Arrested On Drunkenness Charge

ALAMEDA, July 5. — Alameda did not permit the Fourth of July to pass without arrests for drunkenness. Two men, alleged by Officers James Ross and Stanley Loveland to have been under the influence, were picked up at Park street and Encinal avenue shortly after midnight. They gave the names of David May and James Kane, and their address as the Eureka Hotel, Seventh and Washington streets, Oakland. The pair explained their presence in Alameda by claiming to have boarded the wrong ferryboat in San Francisco.

PLAGUE DEATH RECORDED.

VERA CRUZ July 5.—One death from bubonic plague and one new case were reported during the last twenty-four hours.

Independence Day Program Continues Till Midnight

RICARD MAKES JULY PREDICTION

SANTA CLARA, July 5. — Father Ricard of the observatory of the University of Santa Clara has given out the following in regard to the July weather.

July 6—A minor disturbance will set in partly over the high northwest and partly over the southern plateau. The high will land on the 8th, making it cooler at first but warmer after a few hours.

July 12, 13, 14, 15—New lows will pass over the northwest, affect most of the plateau and cause a lowering of the pressure in the south. Simultaneously the barometric rise over the coast from Vancouver down this way on the 12th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th, will cause a high temperature wave. No rain from Oregon to San Diego.

July 22—A minor depression will sweep over the country following the boundary line into the lake region with some rain. The new high pressure having arrived on the 21st, will protect the southern regions. A great lull with considerable heat over all the Pacific slope will ensue, holding out five or six days.

July 28, 29.—Will usher in new low pressures of some depth, with some rain over sections of the northwest and possibly over Arizona and along the plateau line of communication. Large masses of cold air falling from the sky over the coast on the 28th and the 30th will have their cooling effect quickly followed by rising temperatures.

Remark—The storm of mid-June was brought about by a large northern group of sunspots astride the central meridian at that time. It proved once more that one cannot afford to overlook a single event of importance on the sun. With a view to set at naught the conscientious doubts of the gentleman of Kansas and some other gentlemen of great amiability, we purpose to review our sunspot—weather work during the period 1907-1920, and give our findings to the newspapers and scientific reviews. There will be no averages, but only the physical facts of actual observation.

American Legion to Issue Victory Medals

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 5.—Under arrangements just completed with the war department the American Legion will distribute the victory medals, which the government will present to every American soldier, sailor or marine, field clerk or nurse who served honorably for any period between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, it was announced at national headquarters of the legion here last night.

The presentation will be made on armistice day, November 11, in a series of simultaneous ceremonies to be held under legion auspices throughout the world. It is planned that not only members of the legion, but all former service persons and next of kin of those who died in service will "join in united tribute to the spirit of America and the anniversary which marked that spirit's supreme achievement."

Henderson Clashes With Lloyd George

LONDON, July 5.—Arthur Henderson, secretary of the Labor party, has stated that Premier Lloyd George is out to destroy the Labor party, but the premier himself characterized the statement as "simply absurd."

"It is perfectly true," he adds, "that I am opposed to the extremists in the Labor party, and that I am strongly opposed to the extremist proposals of some of their number, for example the suggestion to nationalize everything. That is a very different matter to being out to destroy the Labor party. So far from that I am delighted to see the Labor party seeking by constitutional means to achieve its legitimate aims."

Russ Jews Urged to Settle in Palestine

LONDON, July 5.—Word has been received by the Zionist organization here from the Zionist Federation of White Russia at Minsk that the latter organization has issued a leaflet in Hebrew to the Jews of Russia advising them to start a stream of emigration to Palestine. Contributions are also asked for the funds which are required to build a national home of the Jewish race.

$24 $34 $44

Three prices—and notice how low they are! Truly it's a dress event which offers extreme savings. There are dresses of Jersey, Taffetas, Tricotines, Georgettes and Poiret Twills—even higher-priced models which were worth over double the highest sale price. Clearance now at $24, $34 and $44.

Suits and Coats
from far higher-priced groups are reduced to $56

To make this the most forceful of all our Clearance events, we have assembled scores of far more expensive garments—and drastically reduced their prices, in order to provide this one wonderful sale lot. Included are Suits of fine Check Velours, Rainbow Tweeds and rich Tricotines; and Coats of Velours, Tricotines, Poiret Twills and Serges—now in the Clearance at only $56.

An Extra Event in Oakland Only
20 Velour Check
Suits at $19.50

Imagine it—only $19.50; hardly believable; but the small lot was secured in a special purchase and will be cleared immediately at about half of the real worth. They're smart belted and box-back modes, in black and white, brown and white and navy and tan checks; silk Peau de Cygne lined, too; sale $19.50.

All Finer Silk Sport Skirts are reduced one-third to half—to $10.95 $16.95 $24.95

And such wonderful skirts—even the rarest of novelty modes, the brocaded Baronettes, flowered Pussy Willows, Rajah and Pussy Willow Combinations, Striped Paulette, shimmering Fan-ta-si, plain-shaded Baronettes and others—(every silk skirt in stock)—are all to go at these three prices.

240 Handsome Sport Coats

There are Polo coats, sport coats of Jersey, Velours, Duve de Laine, Tricotine and even three-piece Angora sport outfits—ranging from $28 to $98.50 and now in the clearance at HALF PRICE. ½ Off

All Summer
Trimmed Hats
$1.95 and $4.95

Only two prices now and every summer trimmed hat is included. Why, the fancies, the fine straws and silk flowers alone are worth two and three times the sale prices—clearance $1.95 and $4.95.

250 Silk
Moire Bags
½ Off

Starting with the clearance, our entire stock of silk moire bags, ranging from $2.75 up to $20 will be reduced to exactly half price. Included are scores of fashionable effects beautifully lined and fitted.

LAWMAKERS ARE TOLD BASE NEED

In two banquets held Saturday and Sunday at the Hotel Oakland, Oakland Chamber of Commerce officials placed Alameda county's naval base case straight before eight members of the appropriations committee of the House of Representatives. They also escorted fifteen members of the Congressional party through the shipyards and big industrial plants.

The two-day entertainment of the legislators began Saturday with a luncheon at the Hotel Oakland to the fifteen members of the House. Yesterday the members of the appropriations committee were feted at noon. Director Joseph E. Caine of the Chamber of Commerce presided at the meetings.

Caine and Congressman J. A. Elston briefly told of the fight for the Pacific Coast naval base and pointed out that Alameda county had given $60,000,000 worth of land to the United States free of cost. James W. Good of Iowa responded for the visitors and lauded the California spirit and hospitality.

Members of the National Park Board who have just completed an inspection of the national forest parks west of the Rocky Mountains, also were guests.

Among those who attended the luncheons were:

Congressmen James W. Wood, Iowa, chairman; William R. Wood, Indiana; Milton W. Shreve, Pennsylvania; Louis C. Cramton, Michigan; Joseph W. Byrns, Tennessee; John M. Evans, Montana; John J. Eagan, New Jersey, and James A. Gallivan, Massachusetts. Accompanying them are Stephen T. Mather, director of National parks; A. K. Banta, James A. Gallivan Jr., J. B. Beadle, Charles B. Timberlake and M. J. Sinnott.

Washington Abandons Formal Celebration

WASHINGTON, July 5.—Independence Day was observed quietly today in Washington. Patriotic exercises were held by a number of organizations and by the wounded soldiers at Walter Reed hospital, but there was no formal celebration as in years past and even the usual great display of fireworks at night on the Washington monument grounds was abandoned.

Smile Will Admit All to Show of Tribune and T. D.

Next Saturday morning is to be a big time for the children of Berkeley and vicinity. This is the morning when the Tribune's Aunt Elsie and 50,000 Clubs and the T. & D. Theater are to put on a big free moving picture and entertainment.

The T. & D. Theater will put on one of its regular feature pictures and the Tribune's Aunt Elsie and 50,000 Clubs are to present their clever juveniles in up-to-date acts and songs.

Every kiddie in Berkeley and vicinity is invited to join in the fun. The performance will start at 10:30. Children under 10 must be accompanied by their mothers or older brothers and sisters. A smile is all it costs to get in.

Here are some of the clever juveniles who will take part: Miss Dorothy Buechner, Dorothy Lossman, Lorence Rowell, Florie May Tyrrel, Bernice Claire Jahnigen, Evelyn Rowell, Dorothy Daun, June Honey Lesser and Master Alfred Renrich, a new member secured through the courtesy of the Fiest Music Company. They will be under direction of Mrs. May Tyrrel.

Battery B Men Are to Reorganize Unit

Steps toward reorganizing Battery B, 143d Field Artillery, will be taken at a meeting to be held Wednesday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Colonel Ralph Faneuf, commander of the unit overseas, will preside at the meeting. The minimum strength at which the unit can be formed is 50. It is planned to have Captain John H. Fahy command the unit.

CONFESSES TO MURDER

NEW YORK, July 5.—The police announced today that they had solved the mystery surrounding the murder of Manuel Gabin, a wealthy Spanish restaurant owner, by the arrest of Charles W. Roshore, who was brought here from Corydon, Ia. According to the police, Roshore confessed killing Gabin because Gabin had defrauded him in a business deal three years ago.

IRISH TROOPS IN INDIA MUTINY

LONDON, July 5.—Three-fourths of a battalion of Connaught Rangers stationed at Jullunder, in the Punjab, India, mutinied following the arrival of news of recent events in Ireland, according to a despatch from Simla under date of July 2 to Reuter's Limited.

Upon receipt of the same news at Solan, in the Simla hills, another detachment is reported to have attempted to seize arms and ammunition, the despatch says, adding that guards killed two of the men and wounded one.

Although remaining entirely respectful to their officers, the men explained their sympathies with their friends in Ireland. The troops were separated in camp under the guard of a British regiment.

Following the drastic action of the guards at Solan, the despatch continues, all is quiet there and reports from Jutogh, six miles from Simla, say that the detachment there remained tranquil.

According to the despatch the officers regard the whole affair as a development of Sinn Fein agitation and believe the prompt measures taken to restore order will soon cause the men to settle down.

Imports of Japan Far Exceed Exports

TOKYO, July 5.—Japan's imports exceeded her exports by 497,000,000 yen for the first six months of 1920, according to official figures made public today.

POLICE HUNT FOR WOMAN AND GIRL

A woman and a girl were placed on the list of missing persons by the Oakland police today, after their families had enlisted the aid of the authorities in the search for them.

In the case of Mrs. J. E. Beck, 38 years old, who lives at 1021 Tenth avenue, the police have promised to use the utmost effort to find her, owing to the fear entertained by her husband that she has become despondent over a prolonged illness and so taken desperate measures.

She left home Saturday, leaving no clew behind. She was wearing a purple dress and a blue straw hat.

Lucilla Riley, 13, 586 Third street, Richmond, is the second person for whom the police are searching.

She left her home in Richmond yesterday, telling her family she would return soon. The disappearance of the girl was reported to the police by her brother-in-law, H. A. Stahl of Richmond, who said that although the girl was only 13, she could easily pass for 18.

She is described as being of medium height, weight and complexion, and wore a white dress, a white sport coat with a blue sash and tan shoes and stockings.

NEWS of GREAT EASTBAY-WHAT PEOPLE of the GOLDEN STATE are DOING

TWO INJURED AT LIVERMORE RODEO

LIVERMORE, July 5.—Two contestants were injured at the Livermore rodeo contests here yesterday.

Leo Lynn, one of the contestants, was seriously injured when he was gored by a steer. According to witnesses, Lynn leaped from his horse and landed on the steer's back. The animal suddenly threw Lynn and after trampling him, gored him several times. Lynn was taken to a hospital, where it is announced he will recover.

RIDER THROWN

Johnny Arricabo of Bakersfield suffered a fractured leg and other serious injuries in the bucking horse contest when the wild pony he was riding gave a sudden leap vertically in the air and fell backwards to the ground, crushing the rider.

The wild horse rolled over on its rider, who freed himself from the saddle.

Sixteen teams are entered for the double roping contests today, with the $500 grand prize at stake. This is the greatest number ever entered in this event in the West, the round-up managers say.

THOUSANDS ON HAND

Thousands again attended the rodeo yesterday, but the biggest crowds are on hand today for the finals. It is following the contests today that the prizes will be announced, based on the showings for the three days. A special Fourth of July program is being held this morning, with Superior Judge James G. Quinn as the prinicpal speaker.

Benny and Johnny Dobbins, the "bucking horse brothers," Sleepy Armstrong and Micky Mellrick, were the headliners here yesterday. Some of the best girl riders in the Livermore valley also won great applause by their daring feats. They included Mary Lemos, Evelyn Keller, Josephine Ridrick and Mrs. Santos Bernal.

RESULTS GIVEN

The following were the results of the contests yesterday::

Wild horse race—Antone Silva, first; Angelo Scaffoni, second; Ed Connell, third.

Broncho busting—Johnny Dobbins, first; Fred Williamson and Cy Stokes, tied for second; Ned Winniger and C. Berry, tied for third.

Bull-dogging — "Happy Jack" Hawn (time 10 seconds), first; John Dobbins (time 15 seconds), second.

Bull riding—B. Duncan, first; C. Fernandez, second; Leo Lattimer and Ed Valencia tied for third.

Men's free-for-all horse race — "Sleepy" Armstrong, first; George Nickerson, second; Otto Folmenson, third.

Girls' relay race—Mrs. Elmer Bernall, first; Rosie Freitas, second, Josephine Roderick, third.

Roman race—John Dobbins, first; Cliff Bristow, second.

Men's stake race—Elmer Bernall, first; Frank Bernall, second; Jack Mellerick, third.

Fire Started When Phosphorus Explodes

LIVERMORE, July 5.—There was an alarm of fire at 2 p. m. on the Fourth caused by some phosphorus catching fire in a shed in rear of the McKown & Mess drug store as the result of the water in which it was immersed becoming evaporated exposing the phosphorus to the air. The damage was nominal.

Miss Amy M. Lienau, aged 22 years, a former Livermore girl, died Saturday in San Francisco. The funeral will be held here Tuesday at 3 p. m. from Ryan's Undertaking parlors. She leaves her father, Herman Lienau, and a brother, H. A. Lienau.

Ralph Bangs, formerly of Livermore, is here from Tuolumne accompanied by his daughters, Elizabeth and Beatrice, to spend the holidays.

J. H. Fall and son, Leon Fall, former early residents of Livermore, were here to spend the Fourth.

Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Dahl of San Francisco were visitors here Saturday. Mrs. Dahl was formerly Miss Bading of this place.

Charles Nienburg is here from Redding visiting his parents.

TAXI DRIVER ROBBED

VALLEJO, July 5.—A. Parmeter, a local taxi driver, was robbed on the Springs road a mile east of town late Saturday night by four sailors and a civilian, according to a police report. The tars and civilian were returning from the springs in his car, when the civilian lost his hat and told the driver to stop. The civilian got out to get the hat and when Parmeter backed up the machine he is said to have found a gun sticking in his face and was ordered out of the automobile and relieved of $54.

PLEASANTON

PLEASANTON, July 5. — The Spreckels Sugar company has this week started their irrigating work and during the month a large acreage of beets will be cared for. Past successes in this valley with irrigating beets has proven to the local beet farmers the advantages to be gained by taking care of the crop in time. The thinning and hoeing of beets will be completed next week. The beets look good considering the extreme heat of more than a week ago and good crops are being anticipated.

Since the hay baling season started last week, considerable work has been completed and much hay is being hauled into the local warehouses. The farmers do not seem to be anxious to sell and where sales have been made the crop has been disposed of for $30 a ton and better. But few buyers have so far visited this district.

The Pleasanton Chamber of Commerce is conducting a slogan contest and considerable interest has been aroused among the townspeople for submitting a winning slogan. The object is to assist the chamber with its advertising. The best slogans will be used in planning all the publicity to be given the town at an early date. The work is in charge of William T. Davis, Clinton Keeler and Ernest W. Schween, who are on the publicity committee.

Hayward Legion Post Plans Big Benefit Show Tomorrow Night

N. W. ARMSTRONG, senior vice-commander; JOHN MITCHELL (center), commander, and JOHN FLEDDERMAN, junior vice-commander, Hayward Post No. 68, American Legion.

Vaudeville and Movies Will Make Up Bill to Swell Funds of Organization; Event Will Be Biggest Yet Held By Men There.

HAYWARD, July 5.—The former service men of Hayward will hold a vaudeville and movie show to swell the funds of the organization, tomorrow night. It is to be the biggest show the local post has yet staged and great interest is being aroused in it. The Hayward center has been very active since its formation and has several important projects in view. One of the things it hopes to accomplish is to assist in the improvement of the new Memorial park recently secured through a bond issue.

John Fledderman, who was assistant bandmaster of the 159th infantry, A. E. F., is head of the show committee. Commander John Mitchell and Senior Vice-Commander N. W. Armstrong, are aiding with the details.

The picture will show Dorothy Dalton in "The Market of Souls." Miss Margaret Weaver, a former Hayward girl, will appear in several songs. Miss Irene Orr, 14 years old, of San Francisco, will give a gypsy dance and a valse, toe dance, in costume, and a rope dance, in costume.

PARADE USHERS IN LAST DAY OF RICHMOND 4TH

RICHMOND, July 5.—Today is the concluding day of the three-day celebration which started Saturday in Richmond and to which thousands of people in Contra Costa county and the bay cities have come for their holiday. Today's program included the parade, which took place at 10 o'clock on Macdonald avenue, a barbecue at 11:30 and a sports program which started at 1:40 and is still in progress.

The parade was one of the best ever seen in the city, including floats entered by local and visiting lodges and organizations; decorated automobiles and units made up of drill teams, drum corps and cadet companies. Four bands were in the lineup which included four units. L. Wierda was grand marshal of the parade. Miss Helen Sullivan, goddess of liberty, with her attendants, occupied a handsome float built for her by the Pullman Company.

DANCES TONIGHT.

All the halls in the city will be opened by the dance committee for dancing tonight. Orchestras have been supplied by the Musicians' Union and the celebration will extend far into the night. Last evening patriotic exercises were held at the municipal bandstand with W. H. Hanlon, county superintendent of schools, as orator and Miss Ruth Alta Gray, soloist.

AUTO HITS BOY.

Clyde Parker, 6 years of age, is recovering from injuries received Saturday when he was struck by an automobile truck belonging to the Albers Milling Company of Oakland and driven by Charles Walton, 1812 Twelfth street, that city. The accident occurred near Second and Macdonald. The boy had his right ear nearly torn off, a bad laceration of the right shoulder and a fractured right arm. He is the son of Clyde H. Parker, 161 Second street.

FIRE CALLS MANY.

The small boy and the firecracker are keeping the Richmond fire department busy. Last night three calls to extinguish fires started from fireworks were answered by the department. One was a grass fire, one was to put out a fire under the show window of the Pioneer Battery Company, Macdonald and Eleventh and the third to put out flames which started up the side of the Gold Mine restaurant building when the awning caught fire. The damage in each case was slight.

RAILROAD LINE SOUGHT.

Members of the city council are sounding out the residents of Cutting Boulevard upon the desire of the Southern Pacific Company to use its electric line franchise on that street for freight purposes. A survey of the situation was made last week and a report is to be made at the meeting of the council tomorrow night. The aim of the company is to reach the Proctor and Gamble factory with a freight line.

C. OF C. TO MEET.

The postponed meeting of the directors of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce is to be held next Friday night to consider the appointment of a secretary to the Chamber of Commerce. Rev. A. B. Bahnsen has been serving in that capacity as temporary secretary since the resignation of W. S. Sullivan. A secretary committee, headed by Attorney Wilbur S. Pierce, will report Friday.

FINAL FOURTH MEETING.

The final meeting of the celebratioin committee of the present fete has been called for Wednesday night by Chairman C. F. Donnelly. At that time the business affairs of the celebration will be settled. The expenses were borne by contributions from business men and industrial plants.

SCOUTS WANT MATERIAL.

Contributions of camp material are being sought by the Boy Scouts for their summer campnig trip which is to be taken soon. Scoutmaster J. E. George is in charge of the contributions at his home, 49 Belvedede avenue.

NEW TRIAL ASKED

SAN JOSE, July 5.—Claiming that new evidence has been found, R. V. Bressani, attorney in the defense of Vincenzio Serio, convicted a few days ago of the murder of Mrs. Josie Mongovia, has moved for a new trial for Serio. Judge Beasly has set the hearing on the application for next Thursday morning. Serio has been sentenced to prison for life. The woman he killed was a tenant and she lost her life during a dispute about rent.

BLOCK RAZED BY BRENTWOOD FIRE

BRENTWOOD, July 5.—Fire destroyed almost a block of frame buildings in Brentwood early yesterday morning. The loss is estimated at $30,000. Three families and six business establishments were rendered homeless. The fire is believed to have originated in the Trembley plumbing shop in which is also located the telephone exchange.

Other buildings destroyed were the residence of Peter Olsen; Mike Sargent's shoe store; Paul Nezer's bakery and the Torre building. The lower floor of the Torre building was occupied by the office and printing plant of the Brentwood News, owned by Sam Hill, the E. W. Wristen barber shop and the living apartments of the Hill family. The upper story was the home of Joseph Trembley and family.

The Brentwood volunteer fire department responded and was reinforced by the chemical equipment of the Antioch fire department. Aside from saving a large part of the personal effects in the buildings their efforts were of little avail.

Practically all the machinery and equipment of the Brentwood News was saved as well as much of the stock and equipment of the Neser building.

A fire nearly a year ago destroyed several buildings less than a half-block from Sunday's conflagration. They have since been replaced by modern, fireproof structures.

The buildings burned were on Oak street, east of the Bank of Brentwood.

Health Center May Merge With Oakland

HAYWARD, July 5. — The work of the Hayward health center was reviewed at a meeting held by directors of the school districts and the health center board Saturday. Dr. Alvin Powell of the county health center praised the work being done here, which he said surpasses that of any other center in the county. The center here now has two nurses and two autos. The latter were secured through the Oakland Red Cross and Health Center. Powell urged that the Hayward center merge with the Oakland center and the members have promised to consider the proposal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Beacock and daughter, Barbara Jean, are visiting relatives in this place.

The Camp Fire girls left for the Tuolumne camp this morning.

CANNERY MEN TO DANCE.

SAN LEANDRO, July 5.—Celebrating the completion of their new modern concrete cannery at Alvarado and Thornton streets, San Leandro, the San Leandro Canning company will give a social and dance this coming Saturday afternoon and evening.

Several orchestras have been secured to provide sufficient music for the big affair, to which all the people of San Leandro are invited.

The San Leandro Canning company is a new firm, financed and managed entirely by San Leandro business men.

TROUSERED WOMEN JAILED.

RICHMOND, July 5.—Masquerading in men's clothing with every detail of their attire correct, two San Francisco women were arrested in a local restaurant last night in the company of a young man who said he was the husband of one of the masqueraders. The trio were held over night in the local jail and when questioned on their release this morning stated that they were unaware that there was a law forbidding women to wear men's clothing. The masqueraders were Miss Jean Crackett, Mrs. Arthur Gerde and Arthur Gerde, all of 865 Ellis street, San Francisco.

PURSE IS SNATCHED.

SAN JOSE, July 5.—A snatch-thief took a purse from the lap of the daughter of William M. Jackson, 88 South Seventh street, yesterday while she was sitting in a local theater, according to complaint made to police authorities last night. No description has been obtained of the thief as yet.

MONTANA KEEL CEREMONY HELD

VALLEJO, July 5.—The keel of the superdreadnaught Montana was constructively laid at Mare Island yesterday afternoon when a rivet was presented to Governor Samuel V. Stewart of the state of Montana by Secretary of the Navy Daniels, following a tour of the naval establishment and a luncheon at the cafeteria. The rivet in turn was given to Naval Constructor H. M. Gleason, hull department officer at Mare Island, by Governor Stewart with instructions to see that it was put in place. Commandant E. L. Beach in carrying out the program then presented Governor Stewart with a buffalo nickel, 4½ cents, the regular price paid for rivet driving, and one-half cent additional for overtime.

Captain Beach explained that he was sorry that Governor Stewart could not drive the rivet in the keel at the building slip, but that as it was Sunday that part of the program could not be carried out. He then introduced Secretary Daniels, who praised the officers and mechanics of the navy yard as well as the work turned out at the plant, and said further he expected to be present when the battleship California was placed in commission the latter part of the year, and was glad of the honor today of starting the work on a mighty ship named after a mighty state.

Vallejo Woman's Leap From Steamer, Puzzle

VALLEJO, July 5.—Friends of Miss Cresentia Bayler, who jumped off the Vallejo steamer Napa Valley yesterday, after taking poison, were unable to give any reason today for the woman's suicide. She was rescued from the bay by members of the ship's crew, but died before the ship reached San Francisco. She has been living with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Isabel E. Bayler, at 730 Sacramento street. Her brother, who was employed by the Sperry mills, died about a year ago and since then the women have lived together. They came from Santa Rosa about two years ago. They have friends and relatives there and the dead woman will probably be buried there. Her sister-in-law left for Santa Rosa yesterday and has not yet been found. Neighbors said today that so far as they could see the dead woman had been cheerful.

BOY'S ARM CRUSHED.

RICHMOND, July 5.—It was only by a hairbreadth that 6-year-old Clyde Parker escaped death under the wheels of a heavy truck of the Albers' Brothers' Milling Company late yesterday afternoon. The boy ran out of the ball park on his way home at First and Macdonald avenue in front of the slowly moving truck. The driver swerved, and just averted running over the boy's head and body, crushing his arm and and bruising his ear. He also suffered lacerations about the shoulder and chest. The boy was taken to the Emergency hospital, where his condition was reported as improved. He was later removed to the home of his parent, Clyde Parker, 162 Second street.

RANCH BRINGS $85,000.

SAN JOSE, July 5.—Sixty-six acres of what is said to rank with the finest prune land in the county, known as the old Mitchell farm, has been sold to Marco Biancc and Frank Antomacci, business men of this city. They are said to have paid $85,000 for the property. The new owners plan to build a new residence on the ranch, perfect the water system and make other improvements. The property is four miles from San Jose on the Senter road.

Another real estate transaction here was the trading of the fifty-seven acre fruit ranch near Gilroy, owned by G. W. Warfield, for the Sequoia apartments on Tenth street in this city. Walter Bean was the owner of the apartments. He has assumed possession of the reach, while Warfield has taken charge of the apartments.

Society Finds Many Diversions Over Holiday

The Fourth is being celebrated by society in general out of town, the week-end marking an exodus of the elite to country clubs or homes, while Santa Cruz and Del Monte rival Wawona and the Yosemite in popularity. Out at the Claremont Country Club members and their guests who remained in town to extend their hospitality to convention delegates attended a "Consolation Party" Saturday evening. There were several large dinners preceding the novel dance. It was the last of the season, the informal semi-monthly dances having been postponed until September, when the club will again open its doors for the largest party of the early fall—the coming out of Miss Laura Lindsay Miller, daughter of the Harry East Millers. Several others will make their debut at the club.

Mrs. Walter C. Radke of this city left today for Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, to be matron of honor at the marriage of her sister, Miss Mary Laird Eccleston, and Frank Willis Silsley of this city. Silsley is a son of Rev. Frank M. Silsley and Mrs. Silsley, the latter now being in the East with her son. Dr. Silsley will leave Thursday to be present at the wedding of his son.

The attendants upon the bride will be Mrs. Radke as matron of honor; Miss Lois Radke as maid of honor, and little Emmy Lou Radke as flower maiden. The marriage will take place July 26 and will be a church ceremony.

WEDDING SET FOR LAST OF MONTH

Wednesday evening, July 21, is the date set for the marriage of Miss Grace Huxley and Eustace Angwin, St. Clement's chapel to be the setting, with Rev. F. Augustus Martyr officiating. The reception to the bridal couple later will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Huxley on Piedmont avenue.

The attendants are to be Miss Marjorie Huxley and Thomas C. Huxley Jr.

BETROTHAL TOLD AT LUNCHEON

In honor of Miss Helen McCreary of Claremont, a luncheon was given Friday at the home of Miss Octavia Johnson, daughter of Captain and Mrs. Peter Johnson of the college city, at which the betrothal of the hostess was announced, to Le Roy Cogwin Bush of Honolulu. The announcement cards were attached to corsage bouquets which were placed at each guest's place.

As Miss McCreary's birthday happens upon the Fourth, the appointments of the luncheon were in red, white and blue, a handsome centerpiece being of red roses, white sweet peas and larkspur, with dainty favors carrying out the national color.

The bride-elect is a senior at the University of California and a member of the Pi Beta Phi sorority.

Her fiance is a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Frederick Bush of Honolulu and is a member of the class of '20, University of California. He is also a member of the Winged Helmet, Dahlonega honor societies. No date has been named for the wedding.

MY HEART and MY HUSBAND

by ADELE GARRISON

Due to unavoidable circumstances the installment of My Heart and My Husband was omitted from Saturday's issue. There was no break between Friday's and Sunday's installments

Katie's eyes were like stars as she put her hands impetuously on either side of my face, and demanded eagerly:

"Vot you mean, dot for leetle vile Jeem and me have not babee for juoost us, all same as if he ours? Ve have birthday cake, candle, everything, nobody to say, Katie you no do dees, Katie, you do dot?'"

"I mean just that, Katie, dear," I said unsteadily, for the sight of the girl's pleasure in the thought of having my baby "allher own" for a little while brought the tears very near my eyes. Thwarted motherhood is, to me, one of the saddest humand tragedies, and Katie's grief, I know, is yet poignant, although the little life upon which she built so heavily went out so long ago as this hurrying world counts time.

MADGE SOOTHES KATIE.

She softly stroked my cheeks, then dropping her hands, caught mine and brought them to her lips, kissing them fervently in her impetuous foreinn fashion.

"Oh, Meesis Graham, you joost best vomans in dis vorld!" she exclaimed dramatically.

"I'm glad you think so, Katie," I said whimsically, "and now I'm going to ask you a favor."

"You ask me anythings, ask me to chop dis arm off right at elbow," she held her arm out theatrically. "See vot I do!"

It is lucky that I am used to Katie's absurdities or I fear I should have laughed outright.

"Oh, it's nothing so hard as that, Katie!" I rejoined. "I only want you to keep out of the kitchen until Mother Graham finishes her cake and leaves the room entirely."

Katie's face darkened.

"Dot not so easy," she said. "I like to shake her into sooch leetle pieces she no can find herself togedder again."

"You must not speak in that manner again," I said firmly, although my lips were twitching at the girl's words, "and I want your promise that you will not go back into the kitchen until Mother Graham leaves it. There is no hurry this morning, you know, for breakfast. $ do not have to go to school and Mr. Graham isn't here."

KATIE HAS A PLAN.

"I know dot," she said sullenly. "But maybe you tink dot old vomans von't raise vun leetle bit of old boy ven she no get her coffee right on joomp. And how can I feex eef I no in kitchen?"

For the next minute or two I indulged in the performance labeled as thinking hard and rapidly." What Katie had said was perfectly true. I knew that not only my mother-in-law, but my father as well, like most elderly people, are early risers, and grey actually faint for their matutinal coffee. I knew, also, that Mother Graham, tired from her cake-making, would not take into consideration the fact that she herself had banished Katie from the kitchen, but would blame the girl for not having the breakfast on time.

"I have it!" I said at last. "All the electric things are in the dining room —the percolator, the grill and everything. And the surplus coffee and cereals are in that cupboard in the refrigerator room. You can get them without Mother Graham seeing you. You can get water from the tap in the bathroom upstairs, and by attaching the electric things in here and in he dining room you can get your breakfast almost ready to serve by the time Mother Graham leaves the kitchen."

Katie's face cleared. "Dot all right," she said. "I feex dot qveeck. But now you tell me somethings. Mudder-in-law she bake cake for babee, you say I can bake cake—vot you going do?"

"Eat the other cakes, I guess, Katie," I said, trying hard to keep my voice from trembling, for I had almost childishly counted upon preparing my little lad's first cake.

"Dot no good beeznis," Katie said decidedly. "I tell you sometings. Vy you no make cake, too, take it to room, haxe babee birtday first oop dere, den let heem soom for grandmudder's. But you have heem first. I feex kitchen so you can coom, bake dot cake right after breakfast."

"You're a dear, Katie!" I said joyously, as the possibilities of her scheme burst upon me. "I'll be down right after breakfast."

Plays and Players

FULTON

The premier production of "Her Father's House" at the Fulton Theater yesterday recorded a triumph for Hale Hamilton, the author, Grace Larue, his bride, and for the Fulton Players. Incidentally this was the second successive play to receive a premier production in Oakland at the Fulton, Will M. Cressy's "A Long Lane," having just finished a most successful week.

The Hamilton play tells a story of the battle of two strong men for possession of a girl, the daughter of one and beloved by both. It is packed with dramatic moments, moves with a surety, and is relieved with lights of humor and color. It gives to Lillian Foster, the young leading woman of the company, her first serious part in Oakland and thus affords her the opportunity to win new laurels and more firmly to establish herself in the hearts of local playgoers.

The crowds yesterday demanded a curtain speech by Hamilton and called back Miss Larue again and again when she appeared to sing some of the latest song numbers. The gowns she wears were the center of feminine attention.

It may be said that "Her Father's House" is an event in the theatrical history of the year.

KINEMA

William S. Hart in the second of his own productions, "Sand." Hart is a station agent who is accused of burglary and has to "clean up" a gang of bandits to clear his name.

ORPHEUM

"An April Shower" and "Putting It Over" are principal acts in double headline bill of vaudeville, also including "Fixing the Furnace" and "The Personification of Nonsense."

AMERICAN

Zane Grey's "Desert of Wheat," scenarioized and retitled "Riders of the Dawn," starring Roy Stewart and Claire Adams. Also Bessie Barriscale, "The Notorious Mrs. Sands."

PANTAGES

Harry and Billy Sharp in a girl-and-music minstrel offering without the burnt cork as feature to bill of vaudeville including Jennings and Mack.

T. & D.

Olive Thomas in "The Glorious Lady," adapted from the novel of the same name. "The Faith of the Strong," is a typical Mitchell Lewis story of the frozen north.

COLUMBIA

"Mabel's Ankle," a new musical comedy vehicle for the artistry of Velma Steck, the Columbia's new soubrette. Miss Steck sings the new Art Hickman hit, "Hold Me."

FRANKLIN

Wanda Hawley, supported by Bryant Washburn in filmization of the New York footlight comedy hit, "Mrs. Temple's Telegram." "Change and the Law," Flynn mystery.

BROADWAY

Harry Carey in "That Human Stuff," for tonight only. Tomorrow Tom Mix will be seen in a reshowing of "The Daredevil." Blanche Sweet also appears in "The Hushed Hour."

IDORA PARK

Special fireworks display in observance of Independence Day tonight. The display will start at 9:30 and is to be given in the stadium. Today is "Fleet Day."

NEPTUNE BEACH

Fireworks display in observance of Independence Day over water of Alameda beach tonight. Other special Fourth of July events. New Palace theater now open.

Woman Is Saved by Her Former Husband

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5—Her divorced husband, John J. Wald, proprietor of an automobile repair shop, saved the life of Mrs. Nellie Wald after she had taken poison at the home of her parents, 479 Twenty-second avenue, yesterday. Mrs. Wald by telephone told her former husband what she intended to do. Wald called the Richmond police, jumped into an automobile and dashed across the city. A window was forced for entrance. Mrs. Wald was found unconscious on the couch, an empty vial beside her. A note under a rug said that she still loved her husband. The couple were divorced last week.

Bet your bottom dollar

the biggest smoke treat of your life awaits you in

Camel CIGARETTES

TODAY, pick Camels when you lay in your cigarette supply! For, Camels give you quality and refreshing flavor that are as new to your taste as they are delightful and satisfying.

Camels goodness begins with their quality! And, to this quality add Camels expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos. You will prefer Camels blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight!

You never smoked a cigarette so delightful as Camels; such mellow-mildness, yet that desirable body is all there; such fascinating flavor that always makes Camels joyously acceptable! And, you'll find Camels leave no unpleasant cigaretty aftertaste nor unpleasant cigaretty odor! They never tire your taste!

Compare Camels with any cigarette in the world at any price!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes for 20 cents; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

The Mark that Makes a Thing Yours

Keeping people and apparel identified is one of the most exacting duties of modern laundries. The mark that makes a thing yours may seem a simple detail of service; yet it has required long years of trial to develop the marking method the modern laundries of the East Bay Cities employ in checking the contents of your family bundle.

If you lived in certain parts of France, your whole name and address, together with a special geometrical design, would be inscribed upon your apparel in some plainly visible place. In Batavia a number would be stamped in large figures upon your linen. The Russians mark things in a fashion prescribed by the police. Stamps with engraved designs of great variety are the vogue in Bulgaria.

It is only here that a system of marking has been evolved that is invisible, and which still insures the return to its rightful owner of every article laundered.

The marking in the modern laundries of the East Bay Citieis is done according to a fixed rule. A place is chosen for numbering or lettering that is hidden from sight while the garment is being worn, and the mark is always made at this point only.

If it be a table cloth, the mark that makes it yours is carefully stamped at a corner on the under side; if a skirt a mark is made inside of the waistband, at the right of the opening; if a chemise, the initials or numbers are printed in some equally inconspicuous place.

Many things, like the fine undergarments, handkerchiefs and dainty apparel of women, are not marked in this way but are identified in a still more considerate manner by being securely enclosed in a special net bag—and the bag only is marked.

This exact and considerate marking is the rule in all the modern laundries of the East Bay Cities—it is a part of the service you receive when you send your family washing to them.

Why let washday worries prey upon you? Why fret over the high cost, the bickering and aggravating delays that attend employment of a laundress? If you would strike washday from your calendar, try any one of the modern laundries of the East Bay Cities. Telephone today—a route representative will call.

SPELLACY GIVES $500 WON ON BET TO PARTY FUND

AUDITORIUM, San Francisco, July 5—Thomas J. Spellacy of Connecticut contributed to the presidential campaign fund the $500 he won from Judge Moore of Ohio, the Cox manager, on his bet that Cox would not be nominated in the first hour and a half

Chairman Robinson showed the convention the $500 bill and announced that although Spellacy asked to have his name withheld the party would accept no contributions from secret sources and announced Spellacy as the giver.

Treasurer Wilbur W. Marsh advanced to the platform with his hand out for the bill as the chair made the announcement.

Weather Routine Keeps Up, Though Bit Snappy Today

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—The weather bids fair to keep up the consistent routine it started when the Democratic convention hosts first assembled here, the daily order being cloudy or foggy in the morning and at night and clearing during the day. Since the convention started there has been but one break in this routine, that coming last Wednesday when the morning sky was cloudless. A moderate westerly wind with a chilly snap in it suggested mufflers and overcoats.

SAINT REGRETS SINFUL TREND OF NEW WORLD

ATLANTA July 5.—The world may be growing better, but "Uncle Jimmy" Hutchins, after 73 years of happy life, arises to question.

"What is the world coming to?" he queried, commenting on a petition for divorce filed here within two days of the plaintiff's wedding. "I admit it is better in everything but the habits of the people. They are living at an awful pace."

"Uncle Jimmy," whose full name is James W. Hutchins, then revealed a record of sobriety believed without parallel:

In his 73 years of living he has declared:

Never been in a theater.

Never been in a movie.

Never used tobacco.

Never been intoxicated — and never will be.

Never tasted popular soft drinks.

Has abstained from coffee the last sixteen years

Went to one baseball game fifty years ago, he declared.

"Uncle Jimmy" has lived with his second wife forty-four years, has six children and been a church member more than half a century.

Laundryman to Bury His Brother in China

COLUMBIA, Pa., July 5.—After drawing lots with his other brother to determine which one of them should accompany the body of a dead brother to China, Lee Bang has sold his laundry business to make the trip.

Immediately upon the death of the brother the living members of the family drew lots to determine which one should accompany the body. The lot fell to Lee. After seeing that his brother is buried according to the customs of his country, Lee Bang plans to return to the United States.

BALLOTING PUT UNDER WAY AT NINTH SESSION

from Wall street and the liquor interests.

Those are the large interests' represented in the convention and they have not yet been able to agree on a man.

The first votes for Oscar Underwood to be cast in the convention came from Alabama on the twenty-fifth ballot. It turned out to be only a flurry, however, as far as that ballot was concerned. General Pershing got one vote from Missouri on that ballot.

On the official count on the ballot McAdoo still stood even, Cox lost five and Palmer lost nine

The twenty-sixth and twenty-seventh ballots failed to develop anything new save a gain of five votes for Davis on the twenty-seventh, bringing his total to 60½

The delegates were entertained by seeing a $500 bill lost in a bet and contributed to the campaign fund.

W. T Anderson of Mason, Ga., whose delegation has been voting steadily to Palmer, moved that the low candidate be dropped after each ballot The chair refused to entertain the motion, declaring it out of order

The twenty-eighth ballot showed only a further gain of 2½ votes for Davis, the leaders remaining practically the same. Some bursts of Davis cheering broke out.

The nearest approach to a prediction that commanded much attention was Chairman Robinson's guess "that if the convention failed to do anything today it would do something tomorrow."

HOOSIERS START SLIDE TO McADOO

Intermission between the twenty-eighth and twenty-ninth ballots, the floor was flooded with reports of coming changes to McAdoo. Time, being given between the ballots, was used for conference among delegation leaders The anti-McAdoo people were closely watching Indiana. There were rumblings of a slide to McAdoo headed by Indiana.

After a caucus of the Indiana delegation Tom Taggart said that on the next ballot Indiana would go 29 to McAdoo and 1 to Davis

Georgia delegates said if Indiana went to McAdoo, as Taggart predicted, they would leave Palmer and cast their ballot solidly for McAdoo.

Moore, manager for Cox, heard of the reported situation in Indiana and sent word to all his war horses to stand pat and refused to be swept off their feet.

When the Indiana break came, a demonstration started. A procession immediately was formed and the McAdoo rooters began prancing about the hall roaring and shrieking, urging other delegates to follow them.

The Cox people professed to be undisturbed by the outbreak

One of the New York delegates attempted to grab the standard of that state and enter the procession Thirty Tammanyites jumped to the rescue, and the marked was not moved, but the sign was knocked off the pole.

CHEERING WEAK; DIES IN 5 MINUTES.

The McAdoo crowd got a lot of state standards in the procession The demonstration was rather a tired one. It seemed as if everybody already had demonstrated himself to exhaustion. The band, too, laid off and without its blaring accompaniment the racket failed to gather more momentum. Calls of "Come on Georgia" from the McAdoo paraders failed to bring the 28 votes for Palmer into the parade.

When Sentor King of Utah, acting at the gavel for Chairman Robinson called for order, after the McAdoo demonstration had been going about five minutes, he had no difficulty at all in getting it

On the resumption of the roll call Iowa stood fast and cast the usual 26 for Cox. The Cox people jeered in delight.

The changes shown in the twenty-ninth were: McAdoo gainst 26: Cox lost 18½; Palmer and Davis gained half a vote each

MOTION TO DROP LOW MAN MADE

On the thirtieth ballot McAdoo overcame the Cox lead and sprang back to first place by gradual accessions which followed the slide from Indiana and Washington. The thirtieth ballot as officially announced was: McAdoo 403½, Cox 400½, Palmer 165, Davis 58, Cummings 4, Owen 33, Glass 24, Clark 2 and Underwood 2.

Senator Harrison of Mississippi moved that the rules be suspended and that on the next ballot and each succeeding ballot the low candidate be dropped until there was a nomination A point of order was made against it.

Chairman Robinson overruled points of order against the proposal. Parliamentary inquiries came in a flock to the chair and the motion was delayed while they were being answered. A roll call was demanded.

Francis J. Heney of California wanted to know if the dropping of the low candidate would not drop the second man when only two were left. The chair gave an opinion that it would not.

Delegate Ramsey of Montana moved that the motion be laid on the table, and was overruled. The floor was in confusion. Cone Johnson, Texas, and Madden of Illinois were demanding a hearing. A half a dozen delegates were on their chairs demanding recognition.

Roll call on the original motion to suspend the rules finally was ordered out of the tangle. The roll was commenced with difficulty owing to confusion on the floor, and proceeded slowly. But it was soon apparent the motion was lost.

The vote was 820½ against the suspension and 256 for it. Chairman Robinson told the convention that in his opinion such a procedure would be ineffective because no delegate could be prevented from casting his vote as he chose to do.

With that the roll call of the states started for the thirty-first ballot.

Queen's Maids, Denied Wage Raise, Leave

LONDON, July 5.—Forty housemaids at Buckingham palace, all under 30, have quit their jobs because Queen Mary refused to increase their wages 10 per cent. The queen was unable to grant their request for the simple reason that she is unable to afford it.

Student Lost To Church By College: Bryan

BERKELEY, July 5—William Jennings Bryan at St. John's Presbyterian church last night scored what he termed the tendencies of universities to wean students away from the churches. He said only 25 per cent of the religious people at the universities ever went back.

He also said the dry forces had, in reality won a great victory at the Democratic convention. "Never again will we have a congress wet enough to raise the alcoholic content of liquor," he said. "The wets went down to defeat Friday and Sampson did not tear a greater temple down with him than did the liquor forces"

Bryan spoke before an audience that overflowed into the street and the churchyard, on "The Nine Gods of the Present Day." He said there was never a time when we worshiped so many false gods as today. He named these as his nine gods:

The God of gold: the God of fashion; the God of fame; the God of ease, the intellectual God, the travel God; the God of chance, the God of passion and the God of rum.

In referring to the God of gold he said that there are young men who go through college with no higher ideals than to make money. He again criticized tendencies of universities when he referred to the intellectual God. He deplored the tendency to throw away faith and investigate things beyond the domain of reason.

"The Darwinian theory is one of the most paralyzing influences in half a century," he said. "It was the theory upon which Nietzsche laid his philosophy and laid the foundation for the great world war. Nietzsche praised the doctrine of the brute, and that is the doctrine of Darwinism. When a man tells me he believes in the Darwinian theory that his ancestors were apes, I begin to look for him to revert to type

MONEY HOARDED LONG IS FOUND

ROCKAWAY, N. Y., July 5.—A touching scene was laid fourteen years ago in the old Abrams homestead in Ocean avenue, East Rockaway, when, her children gathered around her, June Ann Abrams died. Beckoning her oldest daughter to her side she whispered: "In the attic—some money—under the—" and then she sank back into the pillows dead.

The daughter was Mrs Charles Smith She and her husband inherited the old house and have lived in it ever since. They often searched the attic but in vain, and finally decided the money must have been a myth.

The roof leaked this spring, and, owing to the high cost of labor, Smith decided to repair it. While at work recently he suddenly called to his wife.

"Here's something!"

Under the shingles, wedged in tightly between the rafters and the chimney, he had found a tin box In it was a canvas "shot bag" He brought it down and emptied it on the front porch It was a little shower of gold coins—fives, tens and twenties The Smiths counted exactly $1,000.

U. S. SERGEANT SAYS BUGLE IS LUNG BUILDER

BOSTON, July 5.—Get to be a bugler and fight tuberculosis is the advice given to men with pulmonary trouble by Sergeant Wilfred Manning of the Northeastern department.

The sergeant has more chest expansion than any other man at army headquarters and traces it to his constant use of the bugle.

"Men in the army blow too much about some things, but the best kind of blowing is through a bugle," claims he sergeant, who was with General Pershing overseas and with Colonel Edward L. Logan before this.

"I got my first taste of what a bugle can do for the respiratory organs overseas." he says "It is my contention if every man would blow through a bugle as regularly as I have he would soon build up a pair of bellows that would keep him strong."

Mexico Will Build National Highway

NOGALES, Ariz., July 5. — A great national highway has been ordered constructed by the new Mexican Federal government to extend from Sonoita, Sonora, on the international line, along that line to Juarez, opposite El Paso, Texas, and from that point proceed on down the central tableland of Mexico into the City of Mexico. The contemplated highway when completed will be of about 2000 miles.

A projected road from Tucson, Ariz., to Port Lobos on the gulf of California crosses from this state into Sonora, Mexico, at Sonoita, where the new Mexican national highway starts. Thus, according to plans, the highway from the Mexican capital will connect with the great state road system of Arizona and through that with the fine system of roadways in California.

Germans Prepare to Colonize in Mexico

MEXICO CITY, July 5.—A German colonizing concern in this city is preparing to bring more than 1000 families from overseas, according to announcement made by Federal immigration authorities, and will be located in the state of Michoacan. It is stated that the colonists are being chosen with great care and with a view to their experience as farmers, as well as persons of some financial means.

The secretary of agriculture has been informed that 3000 German peasants and Austrian Polacks are on their way to this country with the intention of colonizing in the interior of Mexico and working on ranches. The secretary is studying a plan whereby small lots of land will be sold to the Germans for cultivation.

DELEGATES, HELD IN UNIT CONTROL, FUME AT DELAY

By MRS. KELLOGG FAIRBANK
(Executive member of the Democratic National Committee)
(Written for The United Press)

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—It is a good thing that San Francisco is a good town, for at this hour it seems as if the Democrats are apparently settling down here to spend the summer. Delegates are fuming, candidates are fretting, railroad ticket agents are daily going insane in large numbers and still we linger, tied by the archaic unit rule which holds delegations intact.

I understand that before the next national conventions are held, a great movement is to be inaugurated, headed by hotel keepers, taxi drivers, waiters and others who profit by the misfortune of mankind, to make the unit rule universally obligatory. In that case life will be one long convention and oratory will become the chief by-product of the United States of America, if, indeed, it is not already so,

HAM SANDWICHES PALL

The Fourth of July has come and gone and the father of families who had confidently planned reunions are still here and exhibiting a growing and likable tendency to talk about their children. Business men are telling each other that if they were running this convention—and everyone is growing tired of a diet consisting of a slice of ham, sandwiched between two mighty halves of bun, retrieved from the convention lunch counter—if we are going to make a permanent thing out of this thing I say let us make the delegations controlled by the unit rule open up a kitchen and feed us in a way worthy of the best traditions of San Francisco.

Sunday was anything but a day of rest. It was open season for the delegates, who have been subjected to a barrage from the various candidates' committees. Every hotel lobby was thronged with gentlemen holding each other fast by the coat lapel, and both talking at once about different candidates. No one listened; one cannot listen continuously for more than a week.

LOBBYISTS SHY AT WOMEN

The women manage to get about and see something of the town, as the men are still somewhat shy of trying to talk them into a change of viewpoint—probably because they have no coat lapels—it gives them a fugitive air that is disconcerting.

The delay is, however, harder on the local Democratic committee than on anyone else, as its daily offerings of baskets, of fruit and flowers to the 400 ladies attending the convention still arrive and as the sacred honor of San Francisco hospitality is at stake, promise to continue to do so.

The Democratic convention has accomplished one thing: it has taken the news value from women in politics We are no longer a "story." Everyone is used to us and we are here to stay. Probably in another four years the Republican party will realize it and include us and then we can all get inside the parties and work there with the men. There is, I should say, plenty to do.

JAIL TO OPEN FOR BEGGARS, SAYS WALLMAN

Taking the stand that there is no excuse for street beggars at this time, Captain of Police B. A. Wallman today ordered rigid enforcement of the ordinance against begging

The first person to be arrested on a begging charge was Willard P. Hockenberry, a discharged soldier He wore the soldier's uniform and said that he did not have enough money to buy civilian clothes.

The authorities say that Hockenberry has a police record and that he has served time in an eastern military prison for desertion during the war.

Police say he accosted A. E. Ridgeway, ticket agent at the Sixteenth street depot, and asked him for money.

"Police leniency in regard to beggars on the streets has resulted in a marked increase in their activities in annoying the public," said Chief J. F. Lynch. "At this time, with the fruit crops to be harvested throughout the state, there is plenty of work for unemployed."

Bourbons Displease Advocates of Erin

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5—Dissatisfaction with the treatment accorded the demands for recognition of the "Irish republic" by the Democratic national convention was contained in statements issued by Eamonn de Valera, president of the Irish "republic," and Frank P. Walsh, president of the Friends of Irish Freedom.

"Rejection of the plank pledging the Democratic party to the recognition of the republic of Ireland indicates that it has not yet realized how great is the volume of public sentiment in this country behind the demand for Irish freedom," De Valera said.

"The Irish plank is a weak evasion of a great and burning national issue," said Walsh. "It will be regarded as a device to catch the Irish vote."

Convention Opinion Refused by McAdoo

HUNTINGTON, L. I., July 5.—Firecrackers popped noisily in the village of Huntington today, but at Southdown Cottage, the summer home of William Gibbs McAdoo, all was in silence. McAdoo had read the latest accounts of the Democratic deadlock in the morning papers but refused to make any comment.

London Says Davis Will Be Dark Horse

LONDON, July 5.—"If a 'dark horse' is nominated at San Francisco as now appears likely, it will be John W. Davis," the Daily News declared in an editorial today. The newspaper declared the American ambassador was a man of great ability who had won the confidence and respect of Great Britain by his frankness and tact.

RABBIT MEAT AIDS HAWAII TO CUT COSTS

HONOLULU, T. H., July 5. — Millions of rabbits are headed for Hawaii to help bring down the cost of living in the islands, according to A. Mortizson of Dunedin, New Zealand. The rabbits from the Antipodes are coming in cans—two pounds to each can—said Moritzson, who adds that they are fine eating and cost but little. New Zealand already is shipping potatoes to Hawaii.

Y. L. Chan Herbs Cure Liver Complaint

How he suffered unendurable pain and feared he was going to die from liver trouble until he took the Y. L. Chan herb remedies and how the Chan treatments cured him, is told by C. E. Brown, 1944 Franklin Street, Oakland, Calif., in the following letter to the Y. L. Chan Company:

July 1, 1920.

To Whom It May Concern:

Liver trouble that made me subject to spells of dizziness, impaired my vision, took my appetite and made me miserable in every way, attacked me last February. My condition became worse rapidly and when I was seized with a heavy cold it became almost unendurable. I feared that I was going to die. Then I began treating with Y. L. Chan. After taking the herbs he prepared for a week, I was completely cured. The dizzy spells have gone; I can see perfectly; my appetite is fine and I feel fine every way.

Summer Complaint in Children.

There is not anything like so many deaths from this disease now as before Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy came into such general use. When this remedy is given with castor oil as directed and proper care is taken as to diet, it is safe to say that fully ninety-nine out of every hundred cases recover. Mr. W. G. Campbell of Butler, Tenn., says, "I have used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy for summer complaint in children. It is far ahead of anything I have ever used for this purpose." An O. HENRY Story a Day

The Discounters of Money

The spectacle of the money-caliphs of the present day going about Bagdad-on-the-Subway trying to relieve the wants of the people is enough to make the great Al Raschid turn Haroun in his grave. If not so, then the assertion should do so, the real caliph having been a wit and a scholar, and therefore a hater of puns.

How properly to alleviate the troubles of the poor is one of the great troubles of the rich. But one thing is agreed upon by all professional philanthropists is that you must never hand over any cash to your subject. The poor are notoriously temperamental; and when they get the money they exhibit a strong tendency to spend it for stuffed olives and enlarge crayon portraits instead of giving it to the installment man.

And still, old Haroun had some advantages as an eleemonsynarian. He took around with him on his rambles his vizier, Giafar (a vizier is a composite of a chauffeur, a secretary, and a day-and-night bank), and old Uncle Mesrour, his executioner, who toted a snickersnee. With this entourage a caliphing tour could hardly fail to be successful. Have you noted later any newspaper articles headed "What Shall We Do With Our Ex-Presidents?" Well, now, suppose that Mr. Carnegie should engage him and Joe Gans to go about assisting in the distribution of free libraries? Do you suppose any town would have the hardihood to refuse one? That caliphalous combination would cause two libraries to grow where they had been only one set of E. P. Roe's works before.

But, as I said, the money-caliphs are handicapped. They have the idea that earth has no sorrow that dough cannot heal; and they rely upon it solely. Al Raschil administered justice, rewarded the deserving, and punished whomsoever he disliked on the spot. He was the originator of the short-story contest. Whenever he succoured any chance pick-up in the bazaars he always made the succouree tell the sad story of his life. If the narrative lacked constructive style and esprit he commanded his vizier to dole him out a couple of thousand ten-dollar notes of the First National Bank of the Bosphorus, or else gave him a soft job as Keeper of the Bird Seed for the Bulbuls in the Imperial Gardens. If the story was a cracker-jack, he had Mesrour, the executioner, whack off his head. The report that Haroun Al Raschild is yet alive and is editing the magazine that your grandmother used to subscribe for lacks confirmation.

And now follows the Story of the Millionaire, the Inefficacious Increment, and the Babes Drawn from the Woods.

Young Howard Pilkins, the millionaire, got his money ornithologically. He was a shrewd judge of storks, and got in on the ground floor at the residence of his immediate ancestors, the Pilkins Brewing Company. For his mother was a partner in the business. Finally old man Pilkins died from a torpid liver, and then Mrs. Pilkins died from worry on account of torpid delivery-wagons—and there you have young Howard Pilkins with 4,000,000; and a good fellow at that. He was an agreeable, modestly arrogant young man, who inplicitly believed that money could buy anything that the world had to offer. And Bagdad-on-the-Subway for a long time did everything possible to encourage his belief.

But the Rat-trap caught him at last; he heard the spring snap, and found his heart in a wire cage regarding a piece of cheese whose other name was Alice von der Ruysling.

The Von der Ruyslings still live in that little square about which so much has been said, and in which so little has been done. Today you hear of Mr. Tilden's underground passage, and you hear Mr. Gould's elevated passage and that about ends the noise in the world made by Gramercy Square. But once it was different. The Vonder Ruysélings live there yet, and they received the first key ever made to Gramercy Park.

You shall have no description of Alice v. d. R. Just call up in your mind the picture of your own Maggie or Vera or Beatrice, straighten her nose, soften her voice, tone her down and then tone her up, make her beautiful and unattainable—and you have a faint dry-point etching of Alice. The family owned a crumbly brick house and a coachman named Joseph in a coast of many colors, and a horse so old that he claimed to belong to the order of the Perissodactyla, and had toes instead of hoofs. In the year 1898 the family had to buy a new set of harness for the Perissodactyl. Before using it they made Joseph smear it over with a mixture of ashes and soot. It was the Von der Ruysling family that bought the territory between the Bowery and East River and Rivington Street and the Statue of Liberty, in the year 1649, from an Indian chief for a quart of pessementerie and a pair of Turkey-red portiers designed for a Harlem flat. I have always admired that Indian's perspicacity and good taste. All this is merely to convince you that the Vonder der Ruylings were exactly the kind of poor aristocrats that turn down their noses at people who have money. Oh, well, I don't mean that; I mean people who have just money.

One evening Pilkins went down to the red brick house in Gramercy Square, and made what he thought was a proposal to Alice v. d. R. Alice, with her nose turned down, and thinking of his money, considered it a proposition, and refused it and him. Pilkins, summoning all his resources as any good general would have done, made an indiscreet reference to the advantages that his money would provide. That settled it. The lady turned so cold that Walter Wellman himself would have waited until spring to make a dash for her in a dog-sled.

But Pilkins was something of a sport himself. You can't fool all the millionaires every time the ball drops on the Western Union building.

"If, at any time," he said to A. v. d. R., "you feel that you would like to reconsider your answer, send me a rose like that."

Pilkins audaciously touched a Jacque rose that she wore loosely in her hair.

"Very well," said she. "And when I do, you will understand by it that either you or I have learned something new about the purchasing of money. You've been spoiled, my friend. No, I don't think I could marry you. Tomorrow I will send you back the presents you have given me."

"Presents!" said Pilkins in surprise. "I never gave you a present in my life. I would like to see a full-length portrait of the man that you would take a present from. Why, you never would let me send you flowers or candy or even art calendars."

"You've forgotten," said Alice v. d. R., with a little smile. "It was a long time ago when our families were neighbors. You were seven, and I was trundling my doll on the sidewalk. You gave me a little gray, hairy kitten, with shoe-buttony eyes. Its head came off and it was full of candy. You paid five cents for it—you told me so. I haven't the candy to return to you—I hadn't developed a conscience at three, so I ate it. But I have the kitten yet, and I will wrap it up neatly tonight and send it to you tomorrow."

Beneath the lightness of Alice v d. R's talk the steadfastness of her rejection showed firm and plain. So there was nothing left for him but to leave the crumbly red brick house, and be off with his abhorred millions.

On his way back, Pilkins walked through Madison Square. The hour hand of the clockhung about eight; the air was stingingly cool, but not at the freezing point. The dim little square seemed like a great, cold, unroofed room, with its four walls of houses, spangled with thousands of insufficient lights. Only a few loiterers were huddled here and there on the benches.

But suddenly Pilkins came upon a youth brave and, as if conflicting with summer cultriness, coatless, his white shirt-sleeves conspicuous in the light from the globe of an electric. Close at his side was a girl, smiling, dreamy, happy. Around her shoulders was, palpably, the missing coat of the cold-defying youth. It appeared to be a modern panorama of the Babes in the Wood, revised and brought up to date, with the exception that the robins hadn't turned up yet with the protecting leaves.

With delight the money-caliphs view a situation that they think is relievable while you wait.

Pilkins sat on the bench, one seat removed from the youth. He glanced cautiously and saw (as men do see; and women—oh! never can) that they were of the same order.

Pilkins leaned over after a short time and spoke to the youth, who answered smilingly, and courteously. From general topics the conversation concentrated to the bed-rock of grim personalities. But Pilkins did it as delicately and heartily as any caliph could have done. And when it came to the point, the youth turned to him, soft-voiced and with his undiminished smile.

"I don't want to seem unappreciative, old man," he said, with a youth's somewhat too-early spontaneity of address, "but, you see, I can't accept anything from a stranger. I know you're all right, and I'm tremendously obliged, but I couldn't think of borrowing from anybody. You see, I'm Marcus Clayton—the Claytons of Roanoke County, Virginia, you know. The young lady is Miss Eva Bedford—I reckon you've heard of the Bedfords. She's seventeen and one of the Bedfords of Bedford county. We've eloped from home to get married, and we wanted to see New York. We got in this afternoon. Somebody got my pocketbook on the ferryboat, and I had only three cents in change outside of it. I'll get some work somewhere tomorrow and we'll get married."

"After all, I don't believe that just money alone will—"

"But, I say, old man," said Pilkins, in confidential low tones, "you can't keep the lady out here in the cold all night. Now, as for hotels—"

"I told you," said the youth, with a broader smile, "that I didn't have but three cents. Besides, if I had a thousand, we'd have to wait here until morning. You can't understand that, of course. I'm much obliged, but I can't take any of your money. Miss Bedford and I have lived an outdoor life, and we don't mind a little cold. I'll get work of some kind tomorrow. We've got a paper bag of cakes and chocolates, and we'll get along all right."

"Listen," said the millionaire, impressively. "My name is Pilkins, and I'm worth several million dollars. I happen to have in my pockets about $800 or $900 in cash. Don't you think you are drawing it rather fine when you decline to accept as much of it as will make you and the young lady comfortable at least for the night?"

"I can't say, sir, that I do think so," said Clayton of Roanoke County. I've been raised to look at such things differently. But I'm mighty obliged to you, just the same."

"Then you force me to say good-night," said the millionaire.

Pilkins walked away rapidly, and then turned abruptly and returned to the bench where the young couple sat. He took off his hat and began to speak. The girl looked at him with the same sprightly, glowing interest that she had been giving to the lights and statuary and sky-reaching buildings that made the old square seem so far away from Bedford County.

"Mr.—er—Roanoke," said Pilkins, "I admire your—your—indepen—your idiocy so much that I'm going to appeal to your chivalry. I believe that's what you Southerners call it when you keep a lady sitting outdoors on a bench on a cold night just to keep your old, out-of-date pride going. Now, I've a friend—a lady—whom I have known all my life—who lives a few blocks from here—with her parents and sister and aunts, and all that kind of endorsement, of course. I am sure this lady would be happy and pleased to put up—that is, to have Miss—er—Bedford give her the pleasure of having her as a guest for the night. Don't you think, Mr. Roanoke, or—er—Virginia, that you could unbend your prejudices that far?"

Clay of Roanoke rose and held out his hand.

"Old man," he said, "Miss Bedford will be much pleased to accept the hospitality of the lady you refer to."

He formally introduced Mr. Pilkins to Miss Bedford. The girl looked at him sweetly and comfortably. "It's a lovely evening, Mr. Pilkins—don't you think so?" she said slowly.

"Of course, I will take her in," said Alice. Haven't those Southerner girls a thoroughbred air? Of course, she will stay here. You will look after Mr. Clayton, of course."

"Will I?" said Pilkins, delightedly "Oh, yes, I'll look after him! As a citizen of New York, and therefore a part owner of its public parks, I'm going to extend to him the hospitality of Madison Square tonight. He's going to sit there on a bench till morning. There's no use arguing with him. Isn't he wonderful? I'm glad you'll look after the little lady, Alice. I tell you those Babes in the Wood made my—that is, er—made Wall Street and the Bank of England look like penny arcades."

Miss von der Ruysling whisked Miss Bedford of Bedford County up to restful regions upstairs. When she came down, she put an oblong pastboard box into Pilkins' hand.

"Oh, yes, I remember," said Pilkins, with a sigh, "the wooly kitten."

He left Clayton on a park bench, and shook hands with him heartily.

"After I get work," said the youth, "I'll look you up. Your address is on your card, isn't it? Thanks. Well, good night. I'm awfully obliged to you for your kindness. No, thanks, I don't smoke. Good night."

In his room, Pilkins opened the box and took out the staring, funny kitten, long ago ravaged of his candy and minus one shoe-button eye. Pilkins looked at it sorrowfully.

"After all," he said, "I don't believe that—just money alone will—"

And then he gave a shout and dug into the bottom of the box for something else that had been the kitten's resting-place—a crushed, but red, red, fragrant, glorious, promising Jacqueminot rose.

News of the Churches

Old Glory was displayed everywhere yesterday, and it played an important part in the decorations of Eastbay pulpits. All over the city, patriotic airs and anthems were sung, but first in the early masses and worship services of the various churches. Last night several union services and mass meetings were held, where the combined forces made the service especially worth while.

The themes were in keeping with the day. At the First Christian Church, the topics of sermons preached by Rev. H. A. Van Winkele were "Our Country's Greatest Need" and "Religious Fireworks." Rev. Fred W. Morrison of First Congregational Church spoke on "A Spiritual Interpretation of American History," while Rev. Lloyd B. Thomas, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, discussed "Perfect Freedom, the Service of God." Rev. John B. Donaldson's themes at St. James Presbyterian Church were "The Hundred Percent American" and "Independence."

Many of the church schools gave Fourth of July programs of song, recitation and flag drills. In some instances the church services were turned entirely over to the children.

H. U. BRUNK IS SPEAKER

The South Berkeley Christian Church devoted its evening service to a patriotic session. H. U. Brunk, lawyer and speaker of Berkeley, gave the address of the evening. Rev. Cedric G. Price, the pastor, occupied the pulpit at the 11 o'clock service, giving, in addition to the sermon, a report of the year's work. This was announced as the closing session of the South Berkeley Church, as the congregation now merges into the New University Christian Church, to be organized Sunday, July 11. The new church will have for its temporary location the present property of the First Christian Church, Bancroft and Dana streets.

FIRST UNITARIAN

"America First" was the subject of the Fourth of July sermon by Rev. Clarence Reed. He said in part:

"The belief has taken hold of the American people that it is our destiny to be the greatest nation in the world. Faith in the future of our country is almost universal among us.

"Munsterberg truly said, 'Neither race nor tradition nor the actual past binds the American to his countrymen, but rather the future, which together they are building.' Jack London also expressed the spirit of America in the words, 'I want to get away from the musty grip of the past.'

"There have been two great crises in the history of our country. The first was at the time of the formation and adoption of the Constitution of the United States. The second during the Civil War, when Abraham Lincoln led the nation to the light of freedom for all men. Today we live in an hour of crisis fully as great. We believe that the great mission of America today is to be the leader of all the nations of the world in the realization of liberty, justice and fraternity. Our great watchword should be: 'America First.' 'America First' should stand for the realization of the greatest possible amount of freedom for every citizen of this country. 'America First' will cause us to strive to have the most efficient and honest government in our cities, states and country, and will inspire us with greater love for our national ideals, a truer appreciation of the worth of every citizen, and enthusiasm for human betterment. 'America First' will help us to be just in our dealings with all the nations of the world, and will lead us to encourage all downtrodden races in their struggle for freedom."

EIGHTH AVENUE M. E.

Rev. James Whittaker of the Eighth Avenue M. E. Church took charge of the union service at the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church last evening, preaching from the text, "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any nation' (Proverbs 24:34). The pastor said in part: "We are a Christian nation. The footprints of God are seen in all our history. We see His fingerprints in the Declaration and in the Emancipation Proclamation. Every monument erected to the honor of heroic and patriotic service has been unveiled with prayer. Our mightiest leaders have always paid tribute to Almighty God, to the Holy Scriptures and to the Man of Galilee. The noblest and best in our civilization is the child of Christian faith and Divine leadership. Too many of our Independence Day orators deal with glittering generalities and do not get down to the fundamentals of our greatness. It is true we have vast territory, richness of soil, great mineral wealth, a wonderful variety of climate, wonderful scenery; so has China and South America, but that does not make them great as world leaders. We are great because we have from our earliest history recognized God and studied the open Bible, and so long as we are governed by these principles we will continue to achieve. We are not without our dangers and we must watch with keen eye lest we become weak under their control. How can we hope to endure when moral feeling and impulse decays?

"It is not commerce, art, education, strong political organization, militarism, or even religious profession that keeps a nation alive, or Tyre, Greece, Rome, Jerusalem would have endured. There is only one thing and that is the incorporation into her laws, and into her daily living, that which was so earnestly advised by the ancient prophets—righteousness. Let this be our watchword, and let all our people practice it, and the United States of America will shine forth with an imperishable luster."

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. Frank M. Silsley, pastor, preached yesterday at the First Presbyterian Church on "Let This Man Reign Over Us." "A good Independence Day resolution is to accept Jesus Christ as ruler of our lives. The cause of the trouble in social life today is not externally moral and spiritual. It is the rebellion of citizens against making Jesus Christ master." Dr. Silsley further remarked: "The pressing problems of today would not be solved even if each citizen had a million dollars, if each worker made fifty dollars per day and if each investor received two thousand percent on his investment. These are merely human expedients. The pressing trouble is that man will not let Jesus Christ reign over his social relations. The cure for domestic social ills is putting love into our social relations and ministering unto others, rather than exercising mastery. It is Scripture that diagnoses safety for world unrest.

"The hope of the national woes is not in the platforms of political conventions, but in the church of Christ. A missionary society gives far more promise than a political platform."

CONGREGATIONALISTS

At the mass meeting of Congregationalists held at the First Congregational Church Sunday evening the principal address was given by Dr. Charles L. Kloss, pastor of Plymouth Church. His subject was "Mob Rule or the Reign of Law." He said in part:

"Jesus Christ has the only proclamation of personal liberty. It is the soul's Magna Charta. Despite 100 years of testimony, countless men yet are slaves, whipped and scourged by low grade habits that have become masters. How few can say with Henley, 'I am master of my fate, I am captain of my soul.'

"Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation left many black men shackled by ignorance and vice more tyrannous than the ownership by white men.

"The armistice did not bring peace, it only changed the form of struggle, a struggle intensified and which will not end until things are settled right. One of the effects of war is seen in increased lawlessness, social unrest, industrial conflict. Strikes with attendant violence, race riots, lynchings, juvenile crime have been much in evidence. Moral laws have been flaunted by shameless living. We had a touch of mob rule in Oakland and it seems a thoroughly safe practice once or twice a week for three four armed thugs to beat up a working man whose only crime is a desire to feed his family and keep together his home.

"The right of a man to quit work is unquestioned, but when he attacgs property or human life he becomes the common enemy of all law-abiding citizens. The lawless home is the chief manufactory of law breakers. The incipient, unspanked anarchist of seven soon evolves into the degenerate of the Thaw-Bergdoll type. The free love episode in Berkeley, the lawless mania for carnal self-expression is evidence of 'fatty degeneration of the ego' and of broken and ungoverned homes. At bottom every industrial and social problem is a moral problem. It is a question of motives and relationships. The sturdy colonists had rock-ribbed and stable conditions because they fostered two indispensable institutions—the church and the little red school.

"Through all the welter of after-war chaos it is increasingly evident that the way out for democracy is education for all, guided and informed by a spirit that seeks the commonwealth."

$14,899,735 IS GAINED BY COUNTY IN YEAR

The assessment roll for Alameda county this year will show a gain of $14,899,735 over that of last year, according to announcement made by Assessor I. H. Clay. The grand total, exclusive of personal property secured by real estate, is $279,313,885. Exemptions on assessment was claimed by 3216 former service men on a total of $1,667,667. Indicative of the rapid manner in which the county is being developed is that 1786 deeds were filed in this county last month, totaling $9,825,000.

Bay Point Worker Is Killed in Explosion

BAY POINT, July 5.—Leonard Kennedy, 29 years old, was killed almost instantly Saturday night when a gas tank burst at the Pacific Coast shipbuilding plant. He was cleaning out the tank with a steam pipe when it exploded through overpressure. His skull was fractured and a side of his face was torn away. He had been working at the plant for several weeks and little is known of him.

War Entertainer Is Y. M. C. A. Speaker

Will M. Cressy, war entertainer and humorist, was the speaker at the regular Y. M. C. A. assembly yesterday afternoon. Cressy told of his experiences as a "Y" entertainer overseas. Mrs. M. L. Brooks, soloist of the First Christian church, sang, and Mrs. Mae Belle Carlson read James Whitcomb Riley's "Old Glory." Charles G. Titus was announced as the "Y" assembly speaker for next Sunday.

DANIELS PRAISES K. C. WAR WORK

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels; Eamon de Valera and Bishop Glass of Salt Lake were speakers at the banquet held by the Knights of Columbus last night at the Palace Hotel, when the fourth degree was conferred upon 250 candidates.

Among the guests of honor were Isadore Dockweiler of Los Angeles, national committeeman from California to the Democratic committee. Frank M. Silva was toast master, Leo J. McCarthy master of the fourth degree. A musical program was rendered. The banquet followed a procession from Knights of Columbus hall to St. Mary's cathedral, where solemn pontifical vespers were said by Bishop Glass, assisted by Monsignors Ramm, Connolly, Gleason, Ryan and Rogers. The sermon was delivered by Rev. John W. Sullivan. In the march were members of the police department, League of Cross cadets and the candidates for degree.

Appreciation for the war work of the Knights of Columbus was expressed by Secretary Daniels. De Valera urged America to pass from passive to active sympathy. Bishop Glass appealed to the order to more actively assist in the work of the Catholic church in America. The combined patriotic and religious purpose of the organization was explained by State Deputy David Supple.

Bakers and Drivers Reach Agreement

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Details of the agreement reached between the bakery wagon drivers and the master bakers have been announced. The drivers, who had asked for an immediate raise from $41 to $48 a week, have agreed to remain at their jobs on the present scale until August 30, when they will be given $45. W. M. Foley, representing the California Bakers' Association, told the drivers that the price of bread would likely be raised on September 1, but there can be nothing definite decided upon until the 1920 wheat prices are learned.

Is Your Back Giving Out?

"Every Picture Tells a Story"

DOES Summer find you tired, weak—all worn out? Do you have a constant backache; feel lame and stiff, and without life or ambition for the simplest task? Surely, then, there's a reason why you feel so badly. More than likely it's your kidneys! You may have overworked, eaten too much meat and had too little rest or sleep, all of which has thrown a heavy strain upon your kidneys. This may be the cause of your bad back, that nervous, "blue," depressed feeling, and that annoying kidney irregularity. Don't wait for some serious kidney illness. Get back your health and keep it! Live more simply and sensibly for awhile and help the weakened kidneys with Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have helped thousands. They should help you. Ask your neighbor!

These are Oakland Cases:

Cavour Street

St., says: "I had never W. E. Gillin, 424 Cavour had a sign of kidney trouble until several months ago. I bent over and when I went to straighten up, sharp, knife-like pains struck me in my back and almost took my breath away. From then on my kidneys bothered me and lumbago set in and every muscle of my back weakened. Bending and heavy lifting was almost out of the question. Doan's Kidney Pills were recommended to me and I got right after the trouble by using them. The cure that less than one box made has lasted and my kidneys have been in fine shape ever since." (Statement given April 23, 1917).

On January 14, 1920, Mr. Gillin added: "I will never go back on Doan's Kidney Pills for what they have done for me. If I have the least sign of kidney complaint, Doan's are sure to give prompt shape."

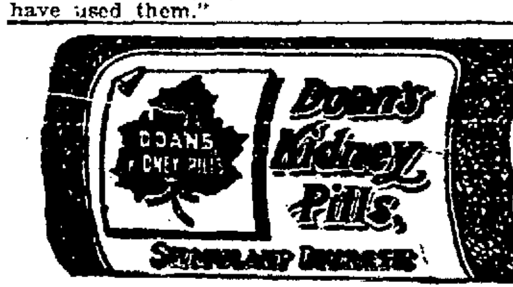
Linden Street

Mrs. V. Esposito, 3105 Linden St., says: "I know the value of Doan's Kidney Pills and gladly recommend them to others. My kidneys were weak and I had attacks of backaches that made me miserable. Often sharp pains would catch me in my back and across my kidneys, and I could hardly stoop. The action of my kidneys was irregular. I read of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them and they were just what I needed. I was soon free from the aches and pains and my kidneys were in good shape."

Twelfth Street

Mrs. Eliza R. Dean, 1474 Twelfth St., says: "For about one year my kidneys gave me a lot of trouble. I had a heavy, dull, aggravating pain across the small of my back. Housework which required stooping was almost impossible and a sharp pain would shoot up and down my back when I bent over. Dizzy spells were a common occurrence and specks would float before my eyes, blurring my sight. Doan's Kidney Pills had been used in the family with good results, so I decided to try them. They soon had me feeling better and continued use removed the complaint." (Statement given April 12, 1917).

On January 13, 1920, Mrs. Dean added: "I gladly confirm all I said endorsing Doan's Kidney Pills. They have always proven beneficial to me when I have used them."



NO package of Doan's Kidney Pills is genuine unless it bears the maple-leaf trade-mark and the signature—"Jas. Doan."

Fourteenth Street

S. Britton, 4020 E. 14th St., says: "I am satisfied from my experience with Doan's Kidney Pills that they are a strictly reliable remedy and one that deserves recommendation. While I have had no serious troubles, I felt the need of a kidney remedy and I gladly say that Doan's gave splendid satisfaction. They rid me of all trouble with my back and kidneys." (Statement given October 5, 1912).

On January 11, 1920, Mr. Britton added: "I haven't changed my opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills. I very seldom have any sign of my kidneys being out of fix since Doan's cured me several years ago. For a slight attack now and then I find them just the thing."

Market Street

Mrs. J. A. Correa, 2639 Market St., says. "About a year ago my kidneys got out of order from the results of a cold settling on them. I couldn't sleep at night my back ached so badly. In the morning I was lame and stiff and my kidneys didn't act right. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and used them as directed and they cured me of all signs of the trouble and I have had no return of it."

MONDAY, JULY 5, 1920.

THE NATION'S ANNIVERSARY.

Than the birthday of the Republic there is no American holiday more important in the life of the people. Enthusiastic popular observation is a good and healthful sign in the citizenship of this country. It is well, therefore, that when the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence falls on the Sabbath, that another day be devoted to the commemoration of the birth of the nation. So today, the fifth, is dedicated to popular rejoicing and new consecration.

Today there are added reasons for Americans to love their country and the institutions of freedom that have come into imperishable being through the efficient beneficence of a free government. There is occasion to take fresh courage in the knowledge that we have recently passed through another great crisis and vindicated the solidity and permanence of our faith, though it was assailed by conditions which shook the very fabric of Christian civilization.

But today there are also disturbing influences which should arouse in every loyal American heart fresh determination to preserve the country and government under the Republic against attack in every form; to strengthen and confirm allegiance to those ideals and aspirations which have been the uplifting message of America to all the peoples of the earth. There is in our midst the alien revolutionary agitator. There is the evil-minded native demagogue who would disturb and whet the appetite for discontent, in order to prosper his selfish designs. There is the official, the judge, the public servant of oblique vision and feeble comprehension who would yield his Americanism to the crooked propaganda of hostile interests.

There are men, such as Judge Anderson of Boston, who say that the Bolshevik and criminal Communist are not offenders against the peace and laws of this country. There are native agitators who applaud such men. There are recreant officials and citizens who stand with such men.

This is the day to render thanks for the brave and constant hearts who are standing guard against such men and such preachments. This is the day to thank that Supreme Power, which controls the destinies of mankind, for America, and to pray for a patriotic conscience resolved that this shall ever be a land of free government of the majority of its citizens.

A USEFUL CAREER.

In the death of Mr. Josiah Kingsley Ohl the other day the profession of news writing and of journalism lost a member who for many years had rendered it the highest and most elevating service. At the time of his death Mr. Ohl was editor of the New York Evening Telegram, but the work for which he was best known and from which he always derived the highest satisfaction was in gathering news and in writing it.

One of Mr. Ohl's larger achievements, and one which has been observed only by the small circle of his newspaper intimates, was in establishing the fact that news and not propaganda ought to come out of the Orient. Fourteen years ago, Japan, by reason of her victory over Russia, had assumed a dominating position which she exploited to advance her schemes and to obscure the real truth concerning her activities in China and Pacific Russia. By insidious and ingratiating tactics she had been able to influence the wholly inadequate news gathering agencies of the Western Hemisphere, and the subsidized European agencies and semi-government representatives were sending to the outside world only what might serve special interests covered in the Anglo-Japanese alliance, German concessions and foreign government financial projects.

To such a field Mr. Ohl was sent. He immediately began to write the truth, the only thing he had ever known how to do. The Japanese and European governments, and even the United States, were placed upon the defensive and some representatives who had accepted Japanese gratuities were separated from their formal employment. While in China Mr. Ohl added truth-telling and fact-revealing to the unwise and dangerous practice, which had gone on for a long while, of toadying to and advertising Japan.

Mr. Ohl gave thirty years to the most important field in journalism—gathering and telling facts—and he carried to his work a fine measure of earnestness, enthusiasm, simplicity and honor which won for him a world of friends.

INDEMNITIES APPORTIONED.

After having properly first reached an agreement as to the amount of the indemnities Germany should be required to pay for her violations of the rules of civilized warfare and the unlawful destruction she inflicted upon her adversaries, the Allied premiers have virtually reached an agreement as to the disposition of the indemnity payments. This was the second difficult question to dispose of in connection with enemy reparations.

If the tentative program of division becomes the permanent plan, France will receive fifty-two per cent of the German payments, Great Britain twenty-two per cent, Italy ten per cent, Belgium eight per cent and Serbia five per cent, with Rumania, Portugal and Japan dividing the remaining three per cent. Italy is reported to be the only nation offering serious objection to this apportionment. She believes that she should receive at least twenty per cent.

But there will be great difficulty in meeting Italy's demand and in all likelihood it will be altered. Since all that can be received under the preliminary plan of division will fall far short of compensating any of the nations for the damages suffered, there will be stout opposition to change which would mean the making of a sacrifice by one country in favor of another.

France, for example, which is to receive only a pittance of what, according to her estimate, would be adequate for a fair and just recompense, would not readily yield any of her prospective indemnity to Italy or any other country. Belgium, which will receive, under the eight per cent plan, only about $2,400,000,000, would likewise be pained at any suggestion to decrease the amount.

It is to be hoped that for the sake of good face that the Allies will not indulge any more squabbling as to how they are to divide the reparations exacted of the enemy countries. The main thing for the good of the world is to require that the indemnities be paid. They will lose much of their permanent moral value in the interest of future peace and practice through the appearance of disagreement and dissatisfaction.

AN INCREASE IN COTTON.

California is rapidly increasing her cotton production. This year 278,000 acres are planted to cotton, compared with 185,000 last year. This is an increase of ninety percent, or 93,000 acres. Of this acreage the Imperial valley tills 225,000 acres, Yuma valley in Imperial county, 5000 acres; Riverside county 25,000 acres and the San Joaquin valley 23,000.

Although the condition of the crop is not quite as good this year as it was last, California will produce a quantity of cotton of which, in view of the comparatively short time she has been growing the crop, she may well be proud. The yield will be about 120,000 bales, which at present quotations will be worth about $60,000,000.

This development of cotton production is of very large interest to the people of the State and the Pacific coast, for it is of a promise of greater economic self-sufficiency and of a more varied industry. Not only does it increase the wealth of the State, but it adds to the variety of occupations and thus makes it more difficult to disturb the prosperity of the people.

Maine is to celebrate the one hundredth anniversary of her entrance into the Union. The centennial of the admission of many States will arrive in the next decade or so. If they are to celebrate the anniversary of their statehood they ought to begin now to formulate plans for contributing some new service to the Union. This can be done in peace as well as in war. It is all right to review the prowess of the past, but much better if we can make resolution to contribute something additional to the common good in the future.

Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler made an attack upon General Wood and then profusely apologized. But he will find hereafter that the written word is often difficult to blot out with an apology.

The Democratic convention may send a few malcontents to the ranks of the committee of forty-eight which the radicals are summoning at Chicago, but no virtue will be added to the third party movement.

EVERYBODY SERVED!

It seems unfortunate that in the distribution of victory medals to those who participated in the world war the War Department should have undertaken to discriminate among members of the service. There is a discrimination here that ought not to be permitted. It is reported that all the medals are to be alike with the exception of added clasps. Medals with no clasps are to be given service men who wore the uniform, but who never left the United States. One clasp goes to those who reached France but did no fighting, and two clasps to the men who actually fought at the front.

Every man of that great American army who responded to his country's call did his duty. It was not his fault if he never went overseas. It was not his fault if, having reached France, he was assigned to some task in the rear, and never realized what the zero hour meant, or heard the order that sent him over the top. Every man of them, from the humblest hostler to the bravest fellow that ever won the coveted cross, performed the duty assigned him, did it without grumbling, and gave the country the best that was in him.

If some Americans found only war's drudgery and none of its glory, why should they be singled out for discrimination in an award that is to be granted to every man in the service There were many hearts that ached because of military orders that kept them from the front, but obedience to orders makes for military efficiency, and the quality of the American troops in every department was the result of loyalty to country and cheerful obedience to orders. Why not remove the clasps, and give every man a medal that will typify a duty well done, whatever its character?—Washington Post.

NOTES and COMMENT

The first point urged against the election of Harding is that he has deprecated his own ability. The able man seldom asumes that he knows it all. Such a thing as modesty is admirable, even in Presidents. When one takes the position that he is the whole thing he discloses a trait that is vastly more to be distrusted than a modesty which prompts self-deprecation.

Belgium defeats woman suffrage. Belgium has been sufficiently chastened to make her hospitable to modern ideas, but perhaps a process of leavening will be necessary to get this idea over.

Reminding us how the time flies it might be recalled that the first United States troops that went over to assist in the important task of making the world safe for democracy landed in France three years ago Saturday. It is pretty well admitted that they and those which followed were entirely successful in the task they set out to achieve.

The Richmond News philosopher has been ruminating: "We suppose a modern Lexicographer would define 'antithesis' to be, among other things, that quality of volubility of speech and mental unreflectiveness that enables Homer S. Cummings to present a frightful contrast to Edward M. House."

The Chico Enterprise, remembering that President Wilson called the Chicago convention "Prussianized," finds that that will save Republicans the trouble of thinking up a word to describe the convention at San Francisco.

The difference between then and now is illustrated in that item that told how, twenty years ago, sugar advanced a quarter of a cent, which brought prices up around five cents a pound. It is certain that this trend was viewed with as great alarm by housewives and explained as volubly by those in the business as the later leaps and bounds that have now brought prices up to thirty cents.

However the criticism by the "former teacher" of the performances of the St. Denis dancers in the Greek theater may be regarded, it springs on us a new one in "orgiastic rite." And it is always something to get a new slant on language.

The war boosted the cost of everything but nothing more astonishingly than that of wild animals, such as are displayed in zoos and circuses. It is represented that an elephant which formerly cost $3000 can't be had now for less than $20,000. And though elephants are a luxury that it would seem might be got along without, somebody seems to need them, for they are in greater demand than when the price was more reasonable.

The Redding Searchlight would give ministers a chance: "Most people assume that a preacher is to be condemned if he displays human nature now and then. We assume that a preacher, being human, isn't a spirit, and that he has just as much right to make mistakes as other mortals have."

The Sacramento Bee can't get away from the subject: "It is said that the United States has about the same area as the Sahara Desert. But as yet even the dryest of our drys do not claim for this country the same degree of aridity that the Sahara may boast."

The editor of the Antioch Tribune gives away a professional secret: "Society folks and editors have one thing in common. They have to appear interested in a lot of stuff that does not interest them a little bit."

From this it might be inferred that the editor of the Tracy Press has been participating in fashionable tea: "Man is still of the earth earthy. He would rather have something to eat on the table than have it dolled up with ferns, carnations and cut-glass."

SPIRIT of the STATE PRESS

There once was a saying to the effect that the young man in love should agree with the adored one's father in politics and her mother in religion. But in these piping days the lovelorner plays safe by agreeing with both father and mother in politics—and this calls for high-grade diplomacy if father and mother are not of the same political faith.—Long Beach Press.

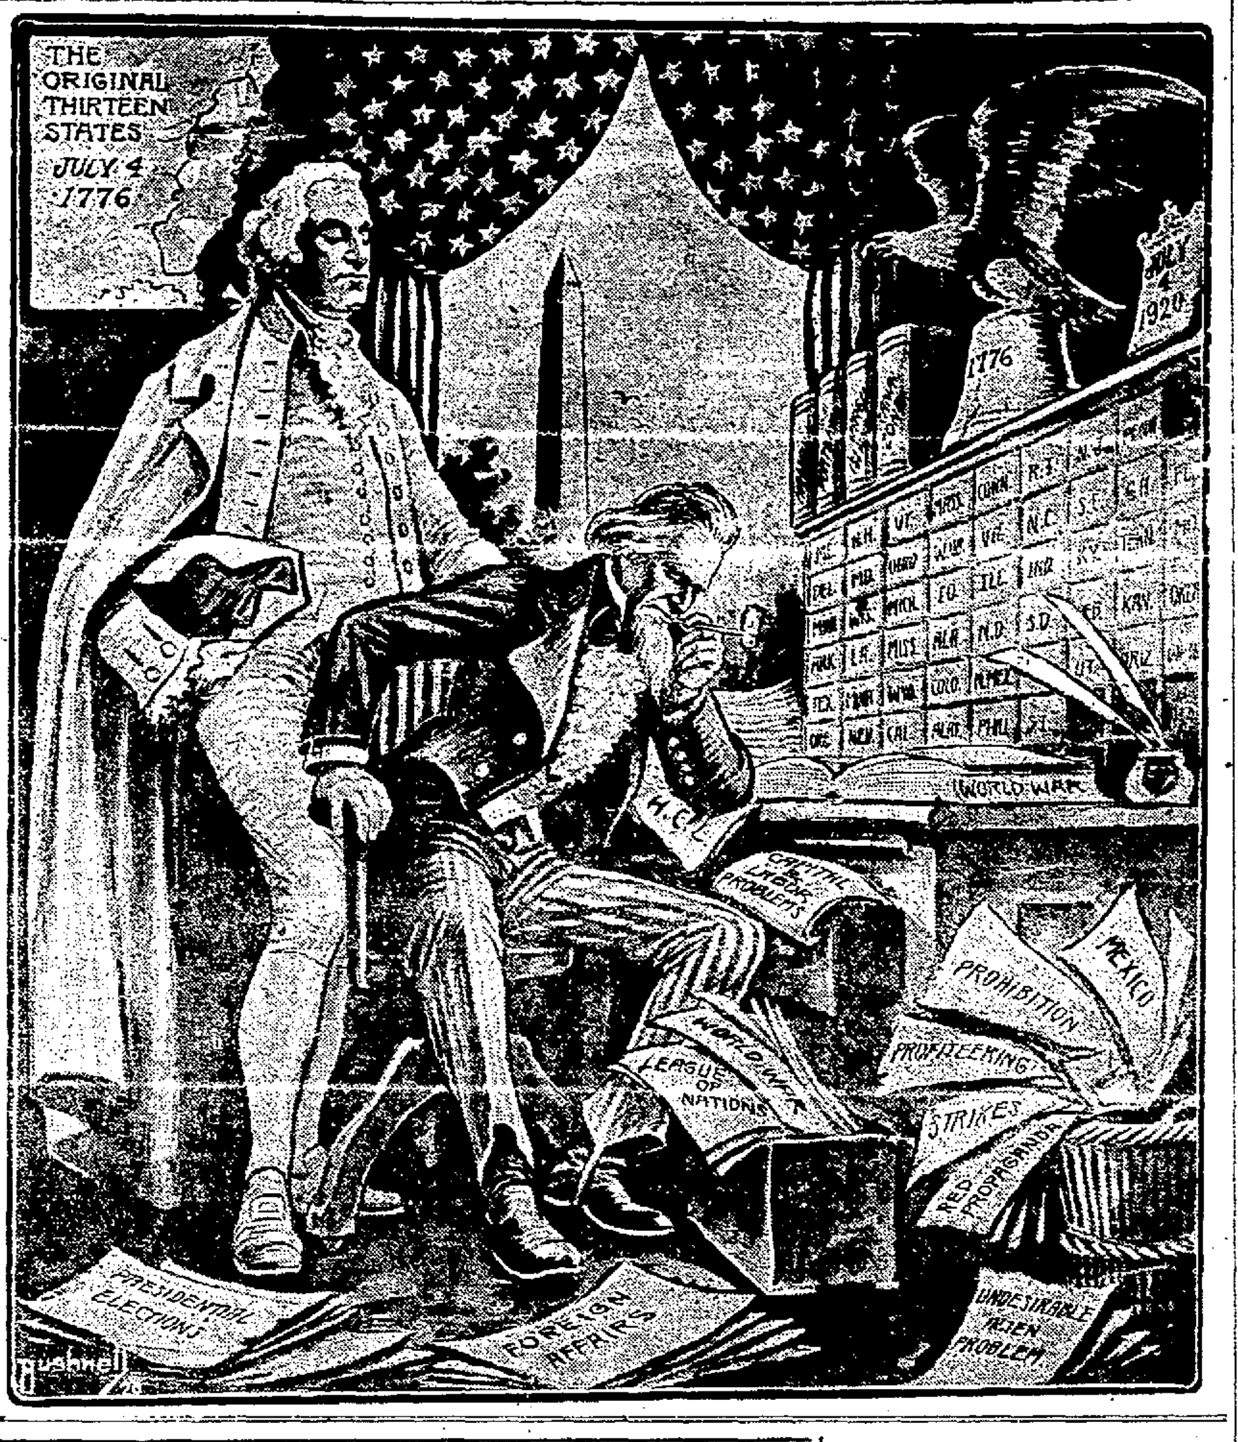
In commenting on the recent escapes of convicts, Judge McLaughlan of the prison board informed the editor of the Tribune that half a dozen guards had been discharged and the rest instructed to shoot at the body of escaping prisoners instead of at their legs, and there are some deadshots among the guards. Most of the escapes, he said, are among the road men.—Dixon Tribune.

An inventor of Hanford modestly asserts that his patent instruments "will locate or indicate the whereabouts of a mineral or ore vein and buried treasure while riding at full speed in an auto." But instead of using them to find some buried treasure for himself, or to locate a rich ledge, he is quite willing to do the work for somebody else for $15 a day and a percentage.—Stockton Record.

The Boy Scouts' organization is winning golden opinions everywhere. It is helping boys to develop their manliness and the community is given the deep satisfaction of seeing Americanism of a superb type evolved in these soon-to-be sovereign citizens.—Long Beach Press.

A giant redwood was cut in the Glen Blair forest recently, which contained 100,400 feet of lumber, according to log scale. The tree measured 287 feet, being 13 feet in diameter at the stump.—Fresno Republican.

THE 144TH ANNIVERSARY OF OUR NATIONAL INDEPENDENCE FINDS US A POWERFUL AND PROSPEROUS NATION, BUT ATTENDED WITH EVER INCREASING PERPLEXITIES, INTRIGUES AND RESPONSIBILITIES



CONQUERING THE PLAGUE

Recent discovery of a number of isolated cases of the bubonic plague in the United States lends interest to a bulletin of the National Geographic Society describing how the disease was conquered by American medical authorities in the Philippines.

"The United States drove the bubonic plague out of the Philippines as completely as it swept the yellow fever out of Cuba," says a communication to the society.

"Bubonic plague was discovered at Manila December 26, 1899, and slowly but steadily increased up to December, 1901.

The deaths in 1900 numbered 190, and in 1901 reached a total of 432. The disease was at its worst each year during the hot, dry months of March, April and May, nearly or quite disappearing during September, October, November and December. It will be noted that the number of cases in 1901 exceeded that in 1900 by 200, while the number of deaths was about two and a half times as great, and the percentage of mortality among persons attacked increased from 73.4 in 1900 to 91.7 in 1901.

"On account of the important part which house rats are known to play in this distribution of bubonic plague, a systematic campaign was inaugurated against these rodents in Manila. Policemen, sanitary inspectors, and specially appointed rat-catchers were furnished with traps and poison, and both traps and poison were distributed to private individuals under proper restrictions. A bounty was paid for all rats turned over to the health authorities, and stations were established at convenient points throughout the city where they should be received. Each rat was tagged with the street and number of the building or lot from which it came, was dropped into a strong antiseptic solution, and eventually sent to the biological laboratory, where it was subjected to a bacteriological examination for plague.

"Buildings in which plague rats were taken were treated exactly as were those where the disease attacked the human occupants. The bacteriological examination of rats enabled the Board of Health to follow the pest into its most secret haunts and fight it there, and was the most important factor in the winning of the great success which was ultimately achieved.

"With very few exceptions, there was no recurrence of plague in buildings which had been disinfected and renovated. As center after center of infection was found and destroyed the percentage of diseased rats began to decrease, and in January, 1902, when, judging from the history of previous years, plague should have again begun to spread among human beings, there was not a single case. In February one case occurred. In March there were two cases, as against 63 in March of the preceding year, and before April the disease had completely disappeared."

FREIGHT CAR SETS PACE.

It is, at best, an unlovely machine. To the ordinary, unenlightened observer its special function seems to be to stand on sidetracks and disfigure the landscape. But the plaints of business men and of railroad managers lead the same unenlightened observer to think that the freight car is the universal solvent which, by trundling from hither to yon, causes all trade difficulties to disappear. Conversely, lack of freight cars means lack of everything.

Not only are there too few freight cars by some hundreds of thousands, but there are too few railroad workers to conduct the cars whither they should go. There are also many thousands of cars in a shocking state of disrepair, so that they are fit only to go to a car hospital. There are too few locomotives to haul the cars that actually do exist and are capable of carrying freight. Cars that can carry freight and have locomotives to invoke in them the wanderlust are very commonly held out of service unduly because shippers are short of labor to load or unload them or are short of storage space and so let freight lie in the cars.

The "ship by truck" movement has not come a minute too soon. The inland waterway development movement is long, very long, overdue. Realization by the public and the public's government officials that adequate railroad service is indispensable to the country and that therefore the railroads must be permitted to charge fair rates, enabling them to provide necessary equipment, is amazingly slow.

Because the freight car sets the pace, the progress of the country is in danger of being slowed down to a crawl.

Government and other agencies will have to establish a definite transportation program and persistently, systematically and effectively strive to put it into operation.—Chicago News.

HULLABALOO WILD NOT WIN.

It looks like a warm campaign. There is much confusion and quite as much anxiety; and both parties will be well advised if they begin work early, keep it up steadily and take nothing for granted. Hullabaloo did not win at Chicago, and is not likely to win either at San Francisco or in the contest before the people.—Washington Star.

TENDENCY GOOD.

With reasonable care and good management on the part of those who control the credit machinery the present check to business will be a benefit and not an evil. This, however, can be true only if the present tendencies are held in check and are prevented from going too far.—New York Journal of Commerce.

HOW TO BE HEALTHY

When the Engine Begins to Knock

By DR. CHARLES F. BOLDUAN, Chief of the Section of Public Health Education, United States Public Health Service.

It was a prospect to make the heart glad. Sixty miles an hour and miles of open road ahead! To Jones sitting beside the driver the car appeared almost to fly, so swiftly and smoothly did it speed along. And yet Murdock seemed dissatisfied. His face wore an anxious, puzzled frown. Now and again he would bow his head to one side and listen to the hum of the engine; then he would cut out the muffler and for a few moments let the engine snort like a racer. Now he retarded the spark; next advanced it as high as it would go. Still the frown persisted. Finally, miles out in the country Murdock threw out the clutch, stopped the car, and got out. "What now," queried Jones, "she seems to be doing fine."

"Maybe you think so, but I know better. Don't you hear the knock?"

Jones could hear nothing, despite Murdock's careful attempts to help him distinguish the knock. He was inclined to regard it all as imaginary. However, he watched Murdock with interest open up the pet cocks to "blow out the soot."

"All right; hop in. I'll fix her up when I get home. It's that poor gas we're getting these days, and she's filled up with carbon."

When they returned from the ride, the engine, in Jones' opinion still performing well, Murdock at once got to work, opened up the cylinders. Sure enough, they were choked with carbon, and Jones realized that Murdock had not been mistaken in the knock. He also understood why it was that Murdock's car gave such good service even after five years of hard use, while his own car had long since gone to the scrap heap, after only three years' use.

How often do we not encounter instances in which some friend or acquaintance whom we thought in the best of health dies suddenly or has a serious breakdown. In almost all cases inquiry would show that he had neglected that warning "knock," or like Jones, had failed to appreciate it. Let us not be to ready to criticize, for the nearly warning symptoms are usually so slight that often they can be detected only by a qualified physician, after a very careful examination. A little irregularity in the heart beat, a slight thickening of the arteries, an occasional trace of albumin in the urine, some shortness of breath on exertion, a slight cough, peculiar attacks of sick headache: these are some of the symptoms so readily overlooked or disregarded as of no serious significance.

Just as the careful motorist has his engine looked over from time to time so all of us who value our health should have a qualified physician look us over thoroughly at least once each year. Even though we may feel we are in the best of health, such an examination may disclose some beginning trouble. Most serious ailments, later on incurable, can be successfully controlled if taken in time. Give your body a square deal. It is a wonderful mechanism, but requires decent care and attention. See the doctor today.

SLASHES THROAT WHILE IN BATH; DEATH IS FEARED

ALAMEDA, July 5.—J. R. Barland, 50, residing at 1578 Buena Vista avenue, is not expected to live following his attempt at suicide this morning.

Barland slashed his throat with a razor while in the bathtub at his home.

Physicians say that they fear the loss of blood sustained is too great for his recovery.

Barland is a retired sea captain and lives with his wife at their Buena Vista avenue home. She summoned a physician, who had him removed to the sanitarium where he was put under care of Dr. J. A. Ellis.

Mrs. Barland is unable to explain the suicidal attempt.

MANY SPEEDERS SENT TO PRISON

BERKELEY, July 5.—Justice was meted out in Berkeley with a stern hand during the past year according to the annual report for the Police Department of Sergeant Charles A. Becker.

While the number of arrests was more than a hundred less than last year, three times the number of offenders were sent to the county jail. More lenient punishment in the form of fines and the suspension of judgment dwindled down under the strict edicts of Judge Robert Edgar. Most of the offenders were arrested for violations of the motor vehicle act.

Figures compiled by Sergeant Becker show a total of 641 arrests for the fiscal year ending July 1, 1920, 235 jurors summoned, 111 warrants issued, 402 witnesses subpoenaed and a total of fines for forfeitures of $1351.

The arrests were 766 for the preceding year. The 1919 figures showed $2171.50 in fines.

Of the arrests made during the last 12 months, there were 287 for violation of the motor vehicle act as compared to 62 in 1919. Other arrests were as follows: Robbery, 20; disturbing the peace, 19, burglary, 13; vagrancy, 36; juvenile delinquency, 66; non-support, 7, insanity, 41.

Sergeant Becker's report shows 68 persons were sent to the county jail from Berkeley, most of them speeding motorists, as compared to 20 for the preceding year.

Judgment was suspended in only 28 cases this year as compared to 123 last, while 138 persons were fined as against 131 in 1919.

RUN DOWN BY AUTO.

Stepping in front of an automobile at Seventh and Franklin streets last evening, John J Nihen 30, Hotel Ray, a clerk for the Southern Pacific railroad, was struck to the pavement and sustained a double fracture of the left leg below the knee. The fractured leg was set at the emergency hospital.

Love Unselfishly, Happy Couple, Wed Sixty-Six Years, Advises

MR. AND MRS. WATERMAN G. VAN NESS, who are celebrating sixty-sixth wedding anniversary. (Photo by McCullagh)

True Affection Will Sweeten Hardship and Preserve Youth, Venerable Philosophers Say.

BERKELEY, July 5.—Sixty-six years married and still lovers, this is the advice Mr and Mrs Waterman G Van Ness of Berkeley, have to give to young people today concerning matrimony:

"Divorces are caused by selfishness. Instead of thinking for each other most of the married people of today are more concerned in their own personal happiness.

"Hardships are the greatest medium for happiness in the world. They either make or break people. Love, true love, will surmount all privations and will win ultimately if both in the marriage contract work together instead of pulling apart.

"Wealth is not necessary for happiness. Happiness is within the soul of a person. A crust of bread shared by two people who really love each other is worth more than all the luxuries divided by a couple who have no affection.

"Above all, never grow old! Keep young in mind and body. The wife must keep apace with the husband and the husband with the wife. Both must cultivate something in common. The likes and dislikes of one must be shared in a certain degree by the other. There must be a general 'give and take.' In a happy marriage one cannot give all, or on the other hand, one cannot accept all."

At the home of their daughter, Mrs. William Steffen, wife of a Berkeley realty broker, at 1615 Arch street, Mr. and Mrs. Van Ness have just passed the sixty-sixth milestone in a marital career which has brought them only happiness.

Still the lover that he was in his 'courting' days, Van Ness rose early to pick his sweetheart a fragrant bouquet from the garden of the Steffen home, which he presented to her as the first of many floral tributes coming to the aged couple during the day. It is thus that it has always been throughout their lives, says Mrs Steffen in adding bits to her parents' philosophy of life. "They are greater sweethearts than they ever were," laughs Mrs Steffen. "They say to be happy one must never stop loving and they are shining examples of happiness, so that must be the secret, I expect."

Both Mr and Mrs Van Ness come from families prominently identified with the history of not only America but of the old world as well. They were married in New York. Mrs. Van Ness has been an invalid for some time but possesses the keen mentality with which she has always been blessed, keeping in touch with all the events of the day. Since his wife's illness Van Ness has been even more devoted to his frail helpmate. Mrs Van Ness is in her eighty-third year, while her husband is five years her senior.

FIVE CHILDREN LIVING

A veteran of the Civil war, Van Ness gave service to his country in an hour of need, which his ancestors before him did in other emergencies.

Van Ness traces his ancestry on the paternal side to the nobility of Holland, while his mother's genealogy goes back through the Pratts of Mayflower fame direct to the throne of England. Mrs Van Ness was Jane Wright, a descendant of a Puritan family.

The venerable couple have five children and five grandchildren, all living except their oldest grandson, Clair Kneeland, who died soon after his return from service in France. Their children are William Van Ness of Oakland, Albert Van Ness of Coronado, Sherman Van Ness of Beatrice, Neb., Mrs. George Kneeland of Craig, Colo., and Mrs. William Steffen of Berkeley.

TWO-GUN HICKS OF TEXAS HERE FOR 'VARMINT'

ALAMEDA, July 5.—The Alameda police have interrupted a "man hunt" conducted by "Two-Gun" Hicks of Texas who for some days has been about the streets of Alameda, attired in high heeled boots, generously crowned hat and other apparel usually worn by men of the range.

"Two-Gun," as he claims to have been called in his home state, sought an interview with Acting Chief of Police George Daly yesterday and suggested to that official that the local department assist in the search for one James Hessler, said to be wanted in a Texas county for murder. A few moment's conversation established the conviction that something was wrong with the man's mental processes and as a result he was detained for observation. Although wearing a heavy leather belt filled with cartridges, no gun was found on Hicks. He says his real name is Sherman Robbins and claims to have relatives in Oakland.

Sermon Is Delivered by Col. Ben Scovell

ALAMEDA, July 5.—Colonel Ben Scovell, a graduate of Harvard University and a prominent minister of England and Scotland, spoke before the congregation of the First Presbyterian church of this city on Sunday morning. Colonel Scovell is one of the seventeen survivors of his famous regimen who fought at Vimy Ridge. He was wounded seven times by shrapnell, was gassed and suffered from shell shock. He is the son of the former Dean of Salisbury Cathedral of England and a nephew of Sir Henry Irving.

WEALTHY WIDOW GAGGED, ROBBED IN HOTEL ROOM

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Oakland and San Francisco detectives and sheriffs throughout California are today searching for the six-foot masked bandit who last night stripped eight diamond rings worth $4000 from the fingers of Mrs. C. E. Moeller, member of the Mrs. John F. Hylan New York Democratic convention party, in her apartment in the Fairmont hotel.

Mrs. Moeller was seated in a chair by her bed, about 8 o'clock last night when the door opened and the masked man entered. As she jumped to her feet, the thug grasped her by the throat and thrusting her back against the wall threatened to kill her if she screamed. He said he had a confederate on guard in the hall.

WOMAN'S FINGERS ARE STRIPPED.

The robber stripped eight rings from the woman's fingers, forced her into the bathroom, and when she looked out to watch his operations in her room, gagged her and bound her hands and feet. He discovered a wrist watch in binding her hands and took it. Having secured the woman, the man later searched the hotel room, finding a purse valued at $200 and containing $70.

The man in fleeing passed within a few feet of William J. Burns, the detective.

The San Francisco police hold to the theory that the man who is described as 6 feet tall with big nose, dark complexioned, with dark hair and eyes, smooth shaven with dark suit and gray overcoat, is the same who recently robbed a roomer at the Palace hotel.

DETECTIVE AIDS IN FREEING WOMAN.

Five minutes after 8 o'clock a Japanese servant heard screams for help coming from room 303 and aided by Detective Burns, burst into the room to find Mrs Moeller standing by the door of her room still bound but with her mouth freed of the gag. She had been able to loosen the towels tht were tied about her legs and by shuffling along had reached the door.

Mrs Moeller who arrived in this city with Mrs Hylan's party had already checked out to return home and although much affected by the incident, she carried out her plan to leave. Mrs Hylan accompanied her to the ferry. The robber's victim is a widow and a member of a wealthy New Work family, whose money is invested in sugar securities.

VIENNA TRYING TO RECAPTURE STYLE RECORD

PARIS, July 5.—Vienna will soon become the fashion center she was before the war, when her styles rivaled those of Paris according to Franz Suss director of the famous Vienna Workshops, who is now in France to look the situation over.

"Viennese women have always been noted for their chic, like the Parisian," said Suss, "just as Vienna was famous for its night life, much in the same way as Paris. Vienna clothes before the war were considered as smart as the French—less extreme, perhaps, but beautifully finished.

"Prevented during the war from communicating with the west, the Vienna stylemarkers are now making up for lost time. Several stunning designs in materials—silk and woolen — which are called the novelty of the Paris season came from Vienna, for instance."

Editor and Author Dead at Coronado

SAN DIEGO, July 5.—Elliot Flower, author and former newspaper man, died here at a hospital following an operation. He had resided at Coronado, near San Diego, since 1916, and contributed many stories to the magazines. He also wrote a number of books, including "Policeman Flynn," "The Spoilsman," "Nurse Norah" and "Slaves of Success."

Flower was night city editor of the Chicago Tribune from 1892 to 1893 and at one time editorial writer for the Chicago Evening Post. He was 56 years of age and is survived by a widow, Laura D. Flower of Madison, Wis., and his mother, Mrs. Lucy L. Flower of Coronado.

GAS HOARDERS TO BE ROUNDED UP BY FIREMEN

ALAMEDA, July 5.—Drastic steps will be taken to stop violations of the city ordinance governing the storage of gasoline on private property, according to Chief Steinmetz today, who is planning to have his men make a house-to-house canvass of the city.

The law restricts storing gasoline on private property to five gallons. The hoarding of gasoline has come as a result of the gasoline shortage.

Many Alamedans have been storing gasoline upon their property in large quantities in preparation for trips in the country during the vacation months.

FINAL CEREMONY HELD AT CHURCH

BERKELEY, July 5.—Farewell ceremonies before amalgamating with the First Christian Church were held yesterday by the South Berkeley Christian Church.

Both of the churches will unite next Sunday in the University Christian Church at a meeting to be held at 11 o'clock in the present edifice of the First Church, which will be the temporary home of the new body. Next Sunday's amalgamation of the two church bodies will mark the last chapter in a war which has been waged between the two organizations for some years, with the question of whether full or partial immersion should be demanded for baptismal ceremonies splitting the denomination.

Full immersion will dominate the activities of the new church of which Rev Cedric Price will be temporary pastor. H. W Brunk, Berkeley attorney and leader in the fight for full immersion in the difficulties which arose some years ago presided at last night's ceremonies at the South Berkeley church.

Relatives Sought of Dr. Allen Griffiths

ALAMEDA, July 5.—Awaiting word from relatives, the remains of Dr Allen Griffiths, 70, found dead in his apartments at 1375 Versailes avenue yesterday, are held at a morgue in this city.

From papers found on the man it was ascertained that a sister, Mrs F C Barnett, was stopping at the Copley Square Hotel, Boston, on June 24 last, and that a daughter Mrs Walter O'Brien, resides in San Francisco. Attempts to reach the latter have so far been unavailing, the family presumably spending the holidays out of the city.

Dr. Griffiths was a retired dentist of San Francisco. The remains were discovered after other renters in the apartment noticed that a light had been burning in the man's room over night and sensing trouble, forced an entrance.

For some years Dr Griffiths has been a theosophy student.

Rain Saves City From Forest Fire

ST JOHNS, N. F., July 5.—Forest fires, believed of incendiary origin, have caused widespread damage in this vicinity, the destruction of the city of St. Johns itself being barely averted last night by a heavy downpour of rain. Much valuable standing timber has been destroyed.

WOMEN PLAN DRIVE.

BERKELEY, July 5.—Old newspapers and magazines collected by the Mobilized Women's Organizations of Berkeley have netted the sum of $802.46 for the purpose of erecting a kindergarten adjoining the Americanization House in West Berkeley. As the sum is not adequate to provide the desired equipment, which it is estimated will cost $1500, a second drive for old papers is being planned by the women under the leadership of Mrs. Lewis A. Hicks.

Two Men Accused of Stealing Provisions

ALAMEDA, July 4.—Alleged to have been caught in the act of removing provisions from the steamer Gray's Harbor, berthed at the Bethlehem Shipbuilding Corporation for repairs, Frank Lochridge, 22, a seaman aboard the vessel, and James Conway of 254 Sixteenth street, San Francisco, are in the Alameda prison facing a charge of petty larceny.

According to Guard S. H. Hume of the shipyards, he noticed the two men, one carrying a suitcase, depart from the vessel. Investigation revealed the suitcase contained a ham, canned goods and other edibles. At the police station Lochridge broke into tears when the desk sergeant would not promise to keep his name "out of the papers."

OAKS PURCHASE ANOTHER SOUTHPAW FROM DETROIT CLUB

BOEHLING AND ALTEN EXPECTED TO JOIN LOCALS AT SEATTLE

Oaks Appear To Have Shook Slump; Phil Koerner Retires With Clean 14-Year Record.

By EDDIE MURPHY.

Ernie Alten, another southpaw flinger, has been purchased from the Detroit Tigers by the Oakland club, making the third player to be secured by the local club from the major league in the last few weeks. So far "Red" Brubaker, the infielder purchased from Detroit, has made good as an Oak, and we'll soon learn what Joe Boehling, the left-hander secured from Washington the other day, can do. Boehling wired to local headquarters that he left Chicago last night and will join the Oaks at Seattle next Wednesday. Alten has been with the Detroit club since 1918, but has not worked very much on the hilltop. He went up to the Tigers from the Portsmouth club of the Virginia League after 1917.

While it reads funny that he has not pitched very much in the two seasons with the Tigers, there must be something good about the southpaw to cause Manager Hughie Jennings to hold onto him so long. Also Frank Navin, president of the Tigers, had to go to a bit of trouble to get waivers on the pitcher so he could be sold to the Oaks. Manager Ed Barrow of the Boston Red Sox for a time refused to waive on Alten, but he finally did so as a personal favor for Cal Ewing and Del Howard. The new southpaw is expected to leave the east immediately and should join the local club at Seattle. If Boehling and Alten can deliver the goods, you can count on Manager Del Howard to do some pruning to his pitching staff. The two newcomers, along with Harry Krause, gives the Oaks three southpaws besides George (Lefty) Winn, who will be out of the lineup until the last month or two of the season.

Oaks' Showing Against Beavers Is Surprising

The way the Oaks have played against the Portland Beavers and their owners doing all they can to get new blood to keep them in winning form, local fandom can now face the supporters of the Oaks' opponents without having to bury their heads in shame. Four wins out of the first seven games with the Beavers on their home lot is doing pretty well. Carl Holling has finally broken his losing streak and maybe he will be a regular winner for the gang again. Today everything is pointing to a bright lane for the Oaks to travel and unless something happens for them to miss it, Del Howard should bring them home holding a place in the first division. The Oaks are playing better baseball against the Beavers than the "win and lose" column can show. All three games lost to McCredie's gang have been by only one run. The defeats of Friday and Saturday both happened in the ninth inning.

Koerner Helped Angels and Seals Win Flags

Phil Koerner, retired San Francisco first sacker, is spending the holi- [illegible] enjoying life better than he would had he stayed with the Seals and continued picking up newspapers to read where he was due for the tinware. Phil and his family left their Woolsey street home in Berkeley Saturday afternoon.

Phil quit the Seals so he could take his family to the mountains as his wife worried herself sick reading the stories that her husband was due to lose his berth with the Seals. Koerner's wife told him to find out if the stories were true and that if they weren't then Manager Charley Graham should deny them. According to Koerner, he asked Graham last Friday if he would guarantee him to stay with the Seals until the end of the season, but Graham refused to do so, and also refused to deny the newspaper stories. So Phil told Graham he was retiring. Graham asked Koerner to stick with the club until he could get another first sacker, but Phil was at that time on the warpath and said "nothing doing." But an hour later, after Koerner realized how quick he was quitting the club he returned to Graham and volunteered to help him until a new man was secured. But Graham's reply was that he wasn't needed as his retirement had already been given the press.

If Koerner never returns to the professional game again, he can boast of a record which many other players will not. In his fourteen years of professional ball, Koerner has not been ejected from a game by an umpire. Phil is a fellow who believes that everybody makes mistakes and he never made it his business to "ride" umpires very much when they erred. Koerner is not given the credit that is due a player of his type upon retiring. When Frank Chance shook Koerner a farewell from the Angels when he was traded with Rube Ellis for Curley Brown, he told Phil that he did more than any other member of the Los Angeles club to win the pennant for the Angels in 1916. Chance parted with Koerner because Gleichmann was a young fellow and Chance thought he could sell him for $10,000 at the end of the 1917 season. But Gleichmann [illegible] replaced by Jack Fournier. Otherwise Koerner might still be with the Angels. The Seals won the pennant in 1917 and Koerner's hits drove home many a win for them. Still, Koerner hit at a .275 clip, only seven points better than he was hitting when he quit the club last Friday.

"I always gave the Seals the best that was in me and I would probably be with them yet if too many outsiders were not telling Graham and Strub how they should run their club. The boys rode me until they broke me and also caused my wife to worry until she is sick and I had to take her to the mountains." Those were the parting words of Phil Koerner as he started for the railway depot.

Koerner is coming back after a short stay and will probably hook on with one of the Valley league clubs. Koerner should be allowed to retire from the game without criticism as he did his share to keep the game clean.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

It was a split all over the circuit yesterday, each team winning one and losing one.

Carl Holling, the young Oakland pitcher, after breaking his losing streak by winning the morning game from the Beavers by a 2 to 1 score, tried to annex a double win by hurling the second game. He lost it by a 4 to 2 score. Carl's efforts shows that he is stisfied with his job as an Oak.

Brooks, the new Portland pitcher, held the Oaks to four hits in the first game, but his wildness at the wrong times and bunching a few of those hits beat him. The Beavers got eleven hits off Holling in the first game, but failed to score until the ninth. Nine hits were secured off Holling in the second game.

The morning game at the Oakland lot was a pippin. The Seals lost it to Salt Lake, 8 to 4 in ten innings. The boys celebrated Fourth of July in the proper way, five triples and four doubles being among the collection of hits made off Lewis and Sailor Stroud.

The Bees were enjoying a 3 to 0 lead in the fifth inning when Roy Corhan stepped to the plate and the bases were full for the Seals and cracked out as pretty a triple to be seen on the local lot this season. The ball went to the left center fence and the Seals tied the score. Sailor Stroud cracked a double to the left field boards to start the sixth and he scored on an infield out and a "squeeze play" bunt by Manager Ernie Johnson. The Seals tied it again in their half when Joe Connolly opened with a triple to center and came home after Rumler caught Schick's fly just back of second. Connolly kept creeping away from third as Rumler hesitated [illegible] daring dash and beat Bill's throw.

The Seals failed to get a hit off Stroud in the next four innings, while the Bees nagged at Lewis until the fireworks went off in real fashion in the tenth. Johnson's double, Krug's single, Rumler's sacrifice, Kamm's error, another sacrifice by Mulligan, Hood's triple and Jenkins' double scored the four runs.

The Seals reaped revenge by going across the bay and taking the long end of a 4 to 3 score in the afternoon.

The Seals had to stage a ninth inning rally to pull the game out of the fire in the afternoon. Corhan started it with a double off Spider Baum. Caveney sacrificed and then Baum walked Connolly and Walsh. He figured wrong for Schick crossed him up with a hit over third that won the game.

The umpiring of Mal Eason and Bill Phyle the past week was as bad as any witnessed this season and in both games yesterday they got themselves into trouble. "Doc" Walsh was put out of the game in the morning when he swung his bat at Eason's feet for calling a bad third strike. Phyle also called Fitzgerald out at first base when he appeared to have beat out an infield hit.

The Umpires have been calling all the bad ones against the Seals and it has just about got the goats of the fans and players. Yesterday afternoon Eason again called Fitzgerald out at first on an infield tap when he appeared to be safe. Fitz was thrown from the game for protesting. Then he called a drive foul on Maggert in the seventh and Harl got so noisy that he was thrown from the game. Then the fans started throwing cushions at Eason, who had to be a champion ducker.

Seattle defeated Vernon in eleven innings in the first game, 6 to 5, but [illegible] and more than got revenge. They landed on Dell, Fromme and Woodward for an 18 to 2 win. They got 24 hits, Borton and Fisher getting four each.

The Senators copped the first game from the Angels 5 to 4, and then lost the second 4 to 1. Zeider and K Niefer were the big hitters for the Angels in the afternoon, each getting three safe ones.

Kinsey Brothers Win From Southern Pair

LOS ANGELES, July 5.—Harvey Snodgrass and Roland Reinke, of Los Angeles were defeated here yesterday in the semi-final match by Howard and Robert Kinsey, of San Francisco, in the third day's play of the thirty-third annual tennis tournament of the doubles championship of the Pacific Coast 6—2, 3—6, 6—1, 6—4.

Inside Dope on the Little Four-Rounders

By BOB SHAND.

Maybe Frankie Denny will not box Otto Berg at the Auditorium Wednesday evening. Frankie says he doesn't know but promises to let the dear public know sometime this evening. Seems that Frankie ate something that didn't agree with him the day the match was made and his stomach has been out of order ever since. Yesterday a consultation was held with Dr. Pete Nolan, Professor "Fat" Goldie, Dr. James D'Annunzio Dundee and Prof. Rosie present and the learned men will hand down a decision tonight—if they are not too busy shooting off firecrackers. It will be quite a change for some of these fighters and their managers to shoot off FIRECRACKERS.

Frankie Malone and Willie Hunefield, the main eventers, have been very careful of their diet and they will be ready to swat each other on the chin Wednesday. Local fans don't know much about Hunefield but Willie is some pumpkins as a fighter. Across the bay they proclaimed Frankie Farren the champion of the Pacific coast when he licked this same Jimmy Dundee and Frankie looks better than ever today. He has forgotten some of the "clever" stuff they use to teach him out at Watts Tract and has assimilated some real fighting knowledge.

One of the many Leo Pattersons, champions of the A. E. F., is on the Wednesday program for a joust with Johnny Webber, but Promoter T. Simpson says his particular Patterson is the real thing. A while back their foisted a tramp on the Dreamland crowd as Patterson, champion of the A. E. F., and the ace-in-the-hole boys got away with something. Simpson's Patterson is vouched for by some West Oaklanders who did their bit in France. Leo is a bear of a fighter, according to his record. So is Webber when Old Man Willie Robinson is not around.

Kid Parker, the hatter, will feel better in a couple of days, when the White-Leonard fight at Benton Harbor is forgotten.

Ever since they started sending out stories from Benton Harbor that cookoo partner of mine has been telling me twenty times a day that they named the harbor after him or his uncle or somebody. Guess he never heard of Parker Pass in the Rocky Mountains—the place where I made fourteen straight passes in 1899?"

Tommy Simpson leaves Wednesday night for Portland to be present at the O'Dowd-Ortega brawl Friday night.

Spud Murphy and Tim Kelly battle in the main event at Dreamland Rink, San Francisco, Friday night.

K. O. Kruvosky is still asking what motive he could have had in "faking" with Walker and there is no answer. Kruvosky was signed with Homer Smith here for Wednesday and had other good fights in sight. There was practically no money bet on the Walker bout. Seems that K. O. was chased for refusing to act crazy and slug with a man thirty pounds heavier.

If Frankie Denny does not go through with the Berg match George Shade or Bert Williams will be substituted. They all look alike to Mr. Berg.

GOSSIP of GOLFERS

DEL MONTE, July 5.—R. L. Coleman Jr., Burlingame, E. S. Vincent, San Francisco, Elliott Calender, Fresno, and J. G. Levison of San Jose won their way to the semi-finals in the Del Monte Independence Day Golf Tournament here yesterday. The semi-finalists among the women were Mrs. C. L. McGowan, Sacramento; Mrs. S. Frankenheimer, Stockton; Mrs. D. Kerr, Portland, Ore.; and Miss E. Young of Stockton.

American Olympic Teams Will Sleep in a School House

NEW YORK, July 5.—Members of the American Olympic teams will be quartered in one of the largest schoolhouses in Antwerp during the Olympic games to be held in Belgium this summer, according to the statement of Gustavus T. Kirby, president of the American Olympic Committee, who returned from abroad Saturday. Mr. Kirby made complete arrangements for the accommodations of more than four hundred athletes, who will represent United States in the seventh Olympiad, during his stay in Belgium.

Big League Gossip

The Cleveland Indians increased their lead in the American League race by defeating the Detroit Tigers 11 to 3 while the New York Yanks were losing to Washington 5 to 2.

Dutch Leonard started for the Tigers and was batted from the box. Okrie relieved him and was also hammered hard in the last inning. Pinelli failed to get a hit for the Tigers and made an error.

Ruether held the Pittsburg Pirates to four hits and the Cincinnati Reds defeated them 4 to 0.

Elwood (Speed) Martin, former Oak was again batted from the box and charged with an 8 to 6 defeat which the Cardinals hung on the Cubs. The eight runs were made off Martin in the first six innings.

Quin and Hannah formed the Yanks' battery when they lost to Washington. Ruth made a double, but also booted one. Bodie hit a single, while Hannah hit a double and single.

The White Sox defeated St. Louis 6 to 3. Jackson hit four out of four for the Sox. Weaver hit one that helped them to win.

Many a Pretty Face Spoiled by Pimples

Unsightly Disfigurations Tell of Impure Blood.

Don't close your eyes to the warning which nature gives, when unsightly pimples appear on your face and other part of the body.

Not only are these pimples and splotches disfiguring, but they lead to serious skin diseases that spread and cause the most discomforting irritation and pain. Sometimes they foretell Eczema, boils, blisters, scaly eruptions and other annoyances that burn like flames of fire, and make you feel that your skin is ablaze.

When these symptoms appear on any part of the body, take prompt steps to rid the blood of these disorders. And the one remedy which has no equal as a blood cleanser is S. S. S., the purely vegetable blood medicine, which has been on the market for more than fifty years. It is sold by druggists everywhere.

If you are afflicted with any form of skin disease do not expect to be cured by lotions, ointments, salves and other local remedies, as they can not possibly reach the source of the trouble, which is in the blood. Begin taking S. S. S. today, and write a complete history of your case to our chief medical adviser who will give you special instructions, without charge. Write at once to Medical Director, 608 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.—Advertisement.

Halton-Didier Nine Wins 8 Games in Row

The Halton-Didiers of Alameda found very little opposition when they took the field at Lincoln Park in Alameda yesterday afternoon to annex their eighth straight victory and they walked home with a 14 to 0 victory over the Goodrich Rubber team, which might be a very good looking club when staying in its own company, but a bad one when tackling a club like the Alameda Clothiers. Fans who witnessed the game say that it was mighty lucky for the J. H. Wilkins that they didn't keep their appointment with the Halton-Diliers, as Manuel's Duarte's boys were feeling in great trim and batted two Goodrich pitchers all around the lot. The score would be much larger hadn't the Halton-Didiers been a bit anxious to get the one-sided affair over with.

The Halton-Didier club doesn't compare with the one that was in the Midwinter league, but just the same Duarte had a gang of players that will give any of the independent teams around the bay at present an argument for honors. Now that the Clothiers are running along so well, we are expecting an announcement of another series between them and the C. L. Best Tractors of San Leandro.

"Red" Randolph, former Los Angeles chucker, can fool a lot of the first rate players in the bushes when he wants to, but yesterday he was enjoying one of those days that he didn't feel like pitching a full nine-inning argument, and he gave way to Lane Shultis after pitching the first six innings and holding the Rubber boys runless and to four hits. Shultis held them runless and hitless in the two innings he pitched.

MANY HITS AND ERRORS

The Godrich players acted like they had rubber all over themselves—even in their gloves. Some fans thought that Jimmy Moore, the Goodrich pitcher, was using a rubber ball instead of the official league ball. The way the Halton-Didiers batted the ball around made him think so. Another fan thought that the gloves the players wore were made of rubber because players of that team let the ball bounce out of them so much. Anyway the boys did the best they could and took the beating gamely. Manuel Duarte, manager of the Halton-Didiers, says that "seeing is believing," which means that hereafter any team that plays the Alamedans will have to show him first that they can play a good game against his club. Manuel found himself in a pinch when the Wilkins club called off their game, so he took the Goodrich nine for opponents of Halton-Didiers when someone said they would make the Alamedans battle.

Moore stayed on the mound for five innings and then quit in favor of Birbeck, who can pitch good ball, but was given rotten support. Randolph, with four hits out of five, and McAllister, with three out of five, were the hitting stars. Next Sunday the Halton-Didiers will play at San Rafael. Lane Shultis and Al Ross will be the battery.

Del Howard Could Use This Shortstop

TORONTO, July 5.—A record of making six hits in six times at bat, twice in one season, was made by Frank O'Rourke, shortstop of the Toronto Internationals, when yesterday he duplicated his feat of the opening day game at Reading, Pa. Batting against a Rochester pitcher Saturday he made two home runs, a double and three singles. On opening day he made three doubles and three singles.

Homing Pigeons Are Flying in Tribune Derby

Members of the Pacific Homing Club are anxiously scanning the sky today for signs of the homing pigeons that were released in Seattle, Wash., yesterday. The birds are due any time now and with favorable weather a new record may be expected.

The race is the annual Tribune Derby and the pigeon classic of the year. The distance is 800 miles, air line. Several hundred birds are en route home.

Teddy Bear Defeats Fast Field at the Emeryville Races

The mechanical rabbit at the Emeryville coursing park was given another tough afternoon by the bow-wows yesterday, the dogs catching up with bunny and going to work on it. Another rabbit was substituted and the program completed.

Teddy Bear took the feature event from Wacconia and Sinn Feiner defeated Smoky Wild Bill in the last race. The results:

First race, ¼ mile—Les Darcy won; Mission Maid, second; Jennie June third. Oakland Hip, Oakland Hill, Richmond Belle also ran. Time, 0:27 3-5.

Second race, ¼ mile—Sitkum won; Ready Answer, second; Desert Sand, third. Swell Over Sand, King Dick, Mission Feiner also ran. Time, 0:27 3-5.

Sixth race, ¼ mile—Sinn Feiner won; Smoky W. Bill, second; Blanche third. Diablo, Republic also ran. Time, 0:24 1-5.

Wild Bill Leard Fined $100 for Attacking Umpire

TACOMA, Wash., July 5.—Bill Leard, manager of Victoria team of the Pacific International League, was fined $100 today by League President Louis H. Durnett after an investigation of his attack on Umpire McCoy in Victoria Saturday.

President Burnett stated that another such attack would mean a long suspension. "Rowdy" baseball will not be tolerated in the slightest degree, Burnett said.

Indians Again Top American League Teams

NEW YORK, July 5.—Cleveland regained the American League leadership from New York yesterday by administering Detroit's seventh straight defeat while the Yankees dropped their first game in ten to Washington. The heavy slugging of the two leaders is carrying them along at a fast pace, but the Indian club lacks the smooth pitching that the Yankees possess. Either Coveleskie or Bagby, the Cleveland star twirlers, have been called upon in every contest for a week.

The Cincinnati world's champions made a slight gain over Brooklyn for the National League leadership. Although the Reds are batting lightly, their pitchers held their opponents to an average of about two and a half runs a game last week. Brooklyn and Chicago both are enjoying good pitching again. The Superbas have been batting lightly but today pounded out thirty-one hits for 18 runs in a double-header with Philadelphia. The Cubs, however, lost a battle for third place yesterday at St. Louis when four pitchers were unable to check the Cardinals.

The Boston Nationals continued their winning play of the previous week by timely batting. Philadelphia lacks scoring power. The Pittsburgh twirlers are handicapped by light hitting. New York's slugging is offset by unsteady pitching.

In the American League Chicago outbatted the league leaders last week, but was unable to attain the same winning pace. Close scores marked the Boston and Washington contests. Johnson of the Senators, is in especially good form and pitched a three-hit and no-hit, no-run game last week.

Dorothy Becker Is First in Diving

SAN DIEGO, July 5.—San Francisco and Los Angeles mermaids yesterday won the honors in an aquatic meet at Coronado Tent City which was conducted under the sanction of the Southern Pacific Association. Results of yesterday's events:

100 yard free style—Thelma Finn, Los Angeles, won; Dorothy Becker, Alameda, second; Dorothy Burns, Los Angeles, third. Time, 1 minute 16 2-5 seconds.

50 yard free style—Thelma Finn won; Ruth Crane, Alameda, second; Florence Friesenhausen, San Francisco, third. Time, 31 2-5 seconds.

220 yard—Florence Friesenhausen won; Thelma Finn, second. Time, 3 minutes 1 2-5 seconds. (only two entrants).

50 yard back stroke—Dorothy Burns won, Marciel McKenzie, second; Dorothy Becker, third. Time, 39 3-5 seconds.

In the ladies diving contest the competition was keenest between Dorothy Becker and Grace Burkey. The former was declared the winner.

"Mary Marie" in Tribune Sunday "Sunbeam Girl" to Come Here

"Mary Marie," Eleanor H. Porter's new girl story, successor to "Pollyanna" and "Just David," will be published in the Oakland TRIBUNE beginning next Sunday.

Mary has been called "the Sunbeam Girl" by reviewers throughout the country, evidencing the fact that Mrs. Porter has been able to create another "Glad Girl' type in the new heroine.

"Father calls me Mary. Mother calls me Marie. Everybody else calls me Mary Marie. The rest of my name is Anderson. I'm 13 years old, and I'm a crosscurrent and a contradiction."

But Mary Marie is more than a "crosscurrent and a contradiction"; she is the most intensely alive and adorable girl that has brightened American literature for many years. The daughter of an austere father who wanted to name his daughter Mary and of a young and somewhat flighty mother who preferred Marie, her double name exactly expresses the nature that the girl has inherited—a delightful blend of demure goodness and lively charm, of a sense of duty and love of mischief, that make her the most appealing of the many famous child characters that the author of "Just David" has created.

Gay, lively, lovable Mary Marie will dance her way into the affections of every reader and leave a glow in the hearts of thousands of American grown-ups and children. Meet her Sunday in the Oakland TRIBUNE.

Milk Output in 1919 Worth $2,000,000,000

WASHINGTON, July 5. — Ninety billion pounds of milk—enough to give each person in the United States two and a half pints a day—was produced in 1919, the department of agriculture announces.

On the basis of 1919 cash prices the milk had a value to the producers of $2,000,000,000.

Manufacturers of dairy products used approximately 45,500,000,000 pounds of the milk produced and the remainder was used in American households.

Burglars Lose Gems in Battling Police

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—Three burglars engaged in a duel with police last night, after they had been trapped in the home of Dr. Roy Morris, 624 Tenth avenue, and escaped. No one was injured. The family is away from home and the presence of the burglars was noted by Ray O'Neil, who lives next door and who summoned the police. In their flight the burglars dropped two suitcases which they had filled with jewelry.

STATE NEWS

VISALIA, July 5.—A masked robber held up the Southern Pacific railroad ticket office here last night, overlooked $500 in his haste, and made his escape with $40.

FOLSOM GUARDS OUSTED.

SACRAMENTO, July 5.—Charged with negligence as a result of the escape of three prisoners from Folsom penitentiary recently, four guards have been dismissed by Warden J. J. Smith.

W. L. Winthrope, who was in the guard tower on the north line of the prison when Carl Otto made his sensational getaway aboard a locomotive, was held responsible for that escape and discharged.

Thomas Curry, Dominic Gallagher and Max Wheelhan were held responsible for the escape of Duane Van Antwerp and Frank Anderson June 23. Smith said that was a clear case of negligence.

Gallagher had served twenty years at the prison as guard, Curry fifteen years and Wheelhan eighteen months.

FIRE THREATENS GRAIN.

MARYSVILLE, July 5—Fire which broke out in a stubble field on the property of the Farm Land Investment company at Arboga threatened hundreds of acres of grain. The origin of the fire is not known. It was first discovered in the stubble field and fanned by a heavy wind soon gained much headway and spread over a 140-acre field besides destroying a new fence.

BELT SAVES LINEMAN.

MARYSVILLE, July 5.—The safety belt he was wearing probably saved the life of Will White, lineman employed by the Pacific Gas and Electric company. While stringing wires on a pole he came in contact with a wire carrying 2300 volts, and as he fell free from the wire his belt held him suspended. Another lineman cut the live wire and two others climbed the pole and lowered White with a rope. Holes were burned in White's trousers above the knees. He is still suffering from the shock, but will recover.

LIGHTNING FIRES FORESTS.

SISSON, July 5.—The worst electrical storm in years is the way the rangers in the Shasta national forest characterize the display of the last few days. Twelve fires in one day in the forest confines were caused by lighting. The blazes were reported by lookouts and were put out before much damage was done. Snow fell on the summit of Mount Shasta and a cloudburst on the south slope of the mountain caused streams to rise rapidly. Nearly an inch of rain fell here in an hour.

BANKS FORM MERGER.

FRESNO, July 5.—The Union National Bank of Fresno has merged with the Sacramento Bank of Sacramento, the Fort Sutter National Bank of the same city, the Farmers' and Merchants' National Bank of Stockton and the First National and Union Savings of Modesto, W. O. Miles, president of the Fresno bank, announced. The combined resources of the chain of banks is about $35,000,000.

Student Officers to Be Taught to Swim

WASHINGTON, July 5. — Students of the reserve officers' training corps in various camps this summer will be instructed in life-saving and swimming by personnel of the first aid bureau of the American Red Cross, it has been announced. The suggestion was made by secretary of war. Colonel C. H. Connor, medical corps U. S. A., in charge of the first aid bureau, will represent the Red Cross in working out the details of the project. Courses will begin June 25 and will be given at Camp Devens, Camp Custer, Camp Alfred Vail, Camp Humphreys, Camp Kearney and Fortress Monroe.

How to Plant a Sloping Yard

The impression that your house stands nearer to, or farther from, the street than it actually does can be created by the use and arrangement of properly colored flowers.

To give the impression that your house stands near the street, plant dark colored flowers near the sidewalk, and gradually lighten the shades as the house is approached. To obtain the opposite effect, plant dark flowers near the house and the lighter shades nearer the street.

When the yard slopes, flowers should be confined to groups and not scattered. Also the colors should not be too varied, but more the different shades of one color. One or two plants of pampas grass are most effective on a slope.

When watering on a hillside, more water should be given at the top of the slope—very often when this is done it is not necessary to water the lower section.

This is the 69th advertisement of a series.

A Gift of Value to Mankind—Hydro-Electric Power

Hydro-electric power makes use, but not waste of the rainfall and snow.

The water used to turn the great wheels in the power-houses flows on down through the valleys, irrigating land which otherwise could not be used for agriculture.

The scattered drainage in the high mountains, which otherwise would be lost, is caught up and used for the great benefit of industries and for agricultural purposes.

California Needs More Hydro-Electric Power

It should be the desire and aim of all citizens to lend aid to this great development, which means added wealth and prosperity for the State.

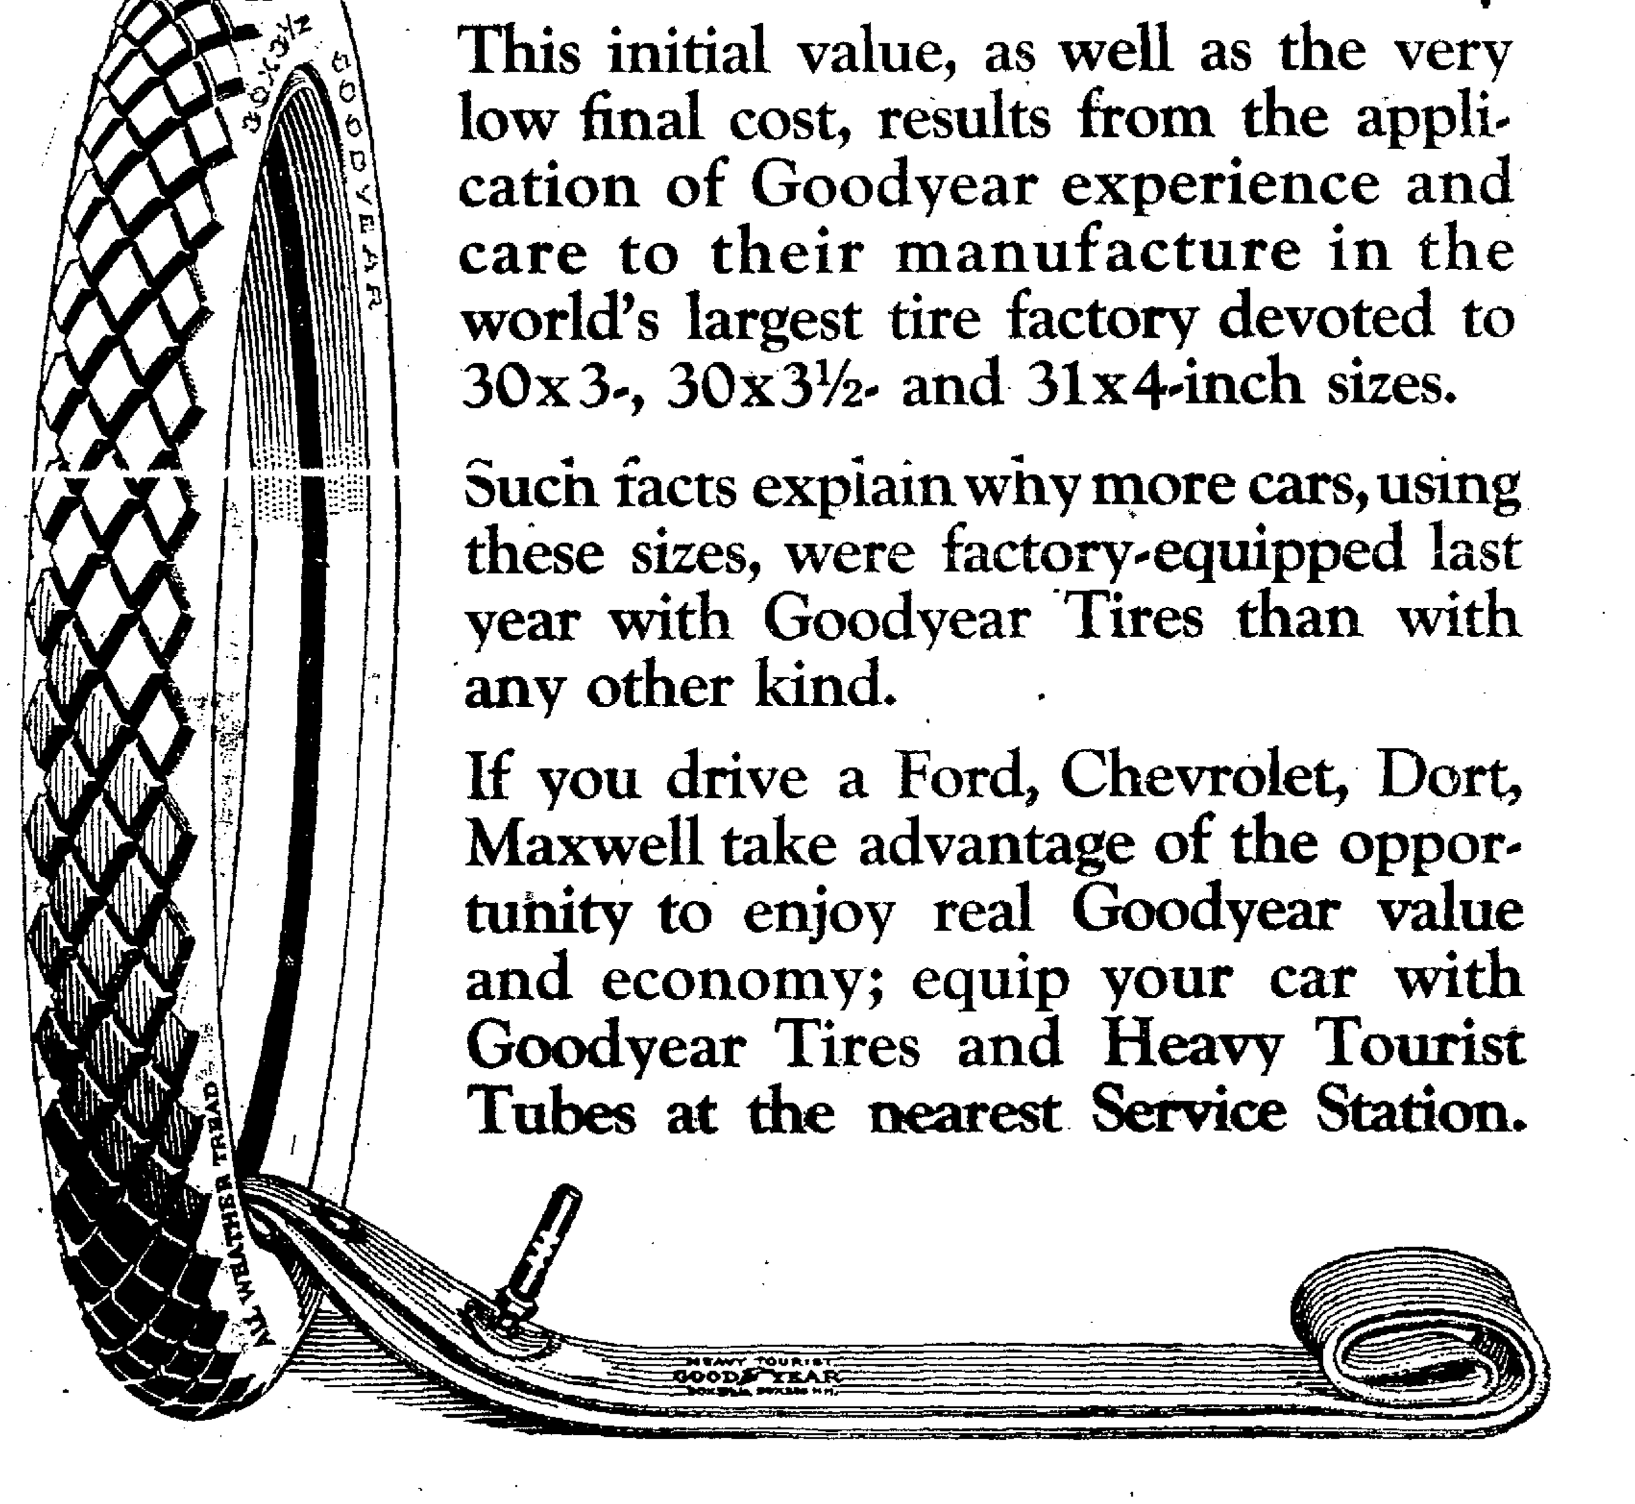
Ride on Goodyear Tires in That Sturdy Small Car of Yours

It surprises certain users of small cars to find that they can obtain Goodyear Tires at a first cost ordinarily not greater, and sometimes less, than that of other tires.

This initial value, as well as the very low final cost, results from the application of Goodyear experience and care to their manufacture in the world's largest tire factory devoted to 30x3-, 30x3½- and 31x4-inch sizes.

Such facts explain why more cars, using these sizes, were factory-equipped last year with Goodyear Tires than with any other kind.

If you drive a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy real Goodyear value and economy; equip your car with Goodyear Tires and Heavy Tourist Tubes at the nearest Service Station.



30x3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30x3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50

Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3½ size in waterproof bag $4.50

JAPAN TO HOLD SIBERIAN POSTS, HARA ANNOUNCES

By HENRY W. KINNEY.
United Press Staff Correspondent.

TOKYO, July 3.—Uncertainty as to Japan's action in Siberia was cleared when it was officially announced today that "for the purpose of upholding Japan's prestige and pending the establishment of a legitimate government in Siberia," Japan will occupy points in Saghalien and will maintain sufficient troops in Vladivostok and Harbarovsk region to keep order.

In a diet speech Premier Hara said the government is considering a Chinese-Japanese alliance.

The Shantung question is unsettled, he said, because of the failure of the Chinese to accept Japan's proposal.

Negotiations are continuing.

The Nokolaesk massacre calls for positive action, he said.

KICKS MENACE SPANISH PHONE COMPANY RULE

MADRID, July 5.—Government supervision of telephones, owing to incessant complaints of alleged bad service given by the company now possessing the monopoly, has been decided upon.

'In event complaints prove justified the government will revise the monopoly concession of the company and possibly will take over the entire system.

Japanese Premier Is Rapped On Suffrage

TOKYO, July 5.—Action by the government in dissolving the last House of Representatives was attacked in the Diet today by Nakasho, former minister of agriculture, and Shimoda, who contended the government should respect the decision of the Diet to grant universal suffrage without referring the question to the nation. They based their argument on the claim that the Diet represented the nation. Premier Hara replied it was improper to adopt universal suffrage without giving a trial to the amended election law which extends the right of voting. He declared, therefore, the government was justified in appealing to the people.

Double Portfolio Is Assumed by Renner

VIENNA, July 5.—A new cabinet of fourteen members has been formed. The parties are represented proportionately to the number of members they have in the national assembly, each party nominating its ministers.

Most of the previous ministers remain in office. Dr. Karl Renner besides the chancellorship, takes the portfolio of foreign affairs.

WILSON SENDS GREETINGS TO CHURCH BODY

BOSTON, July 5. — Greetings from President Wilson and Herbert H. Asquith, former British premier, were conveyed to the International Congregational council, which is holding its foruth decennial meeting here to celebrate the Pilgrim tercentenary.

President Wilson's telegram, addressed to Dr. James L. Barton, moderator of the council, said: "Please convey to the members of the council my utmost cordial personal greeting and an expression of my profound interest in the important objects for which they are met."

Asquith cabled as follows to Arthur Porritt, a British delegate:

"Please convey to the International Congregational council assembled in Boston my cordial good wishes for successful celebration of Mayflower tercentenary."

BRITISH-GERMAN SEA UNION SEEN

International News Service Staff Correspondent

BERLIN, July 5.—British shipping interests are represented to be holding out the olive branch of reconciliation to their former deadly rivals—the Germans. This attitude on the part of the British is said to be the result of the movement in the United States for a powerful merchant marine, especially the activities of the Harriman family in the shipping field. Count Locovich, representing British shipping interests, has proposed to German marine magnates at Hamburg that the Hamburg-American line repurchase, on liberal terms, from the British their own German ships that were confiscated. These German ships were confiscated by the British because of the sinking of the German war fleet at Scapa Flow.

One British condition was that the ships if even controlled by the Germans should fly the British flag for at least two years. The Hamburg men refused this condition, asking the reason for it. The British are reported to have replied:

"Because of public opinion and our allies."

The Germans wanted to know to which allies the British referred particularly and the reply was: "American."

The German shipping men are reported to have protested that the price asked by the British was too high and they insisted that the German flag fly over the ships if they were bought.

Negotiations between the Harrimons and Hamburg shipping interests are still in progress. It is understood that the Americans have agreed that German controlled ships shall fly the German flag on the basis that they are equal with Americans. This agreement, according to shipping men, minimizes the chances of a British sale of ships to the Germans.

Count Locovitch will return to Hamburg from London this week and it is reported that the British will propose that the ships fly a neutral flag if purchased from the English by the Germans.

Illinoisans Lead in Los Angeles Census

LOS ANGELES, July 5.—The belief, held by many residents of Los Angeles, as well as by people in many other parts of the United States, that Iowa had contributed more citizens to the permanent population of this city than any other state in the union, was disproved by the census figures.

Of the 575,480 residents credited to Los Angeles, Illinois lost 30,083, Ohio 30,792, New York 29,644, Missouri 23,644, Pennsylvania 21,169, and Iowa 21,071.

Every state and territory of Uncle Sam's found representatives in Los Angeles, except Guam, the little island in mid-Pacific.

NEW RULE PLAN STIRS EDUCATORS

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, July 5.—Although they will not hold their first formal session until tonight, members of the National Education association, gathering here for their annual convention already are drawing their lines for a renewal of the contest brought into prominence last year on reorganization of the organization.

In all quarters it is admitted that this is the principal issue to come before the association this year. The specific question is whether the body shall transact its business through a body of delegates elected from state education bodies affiliated into one national unit instead of through the vote of all members attending the national convention, as at present.

Miss Margaret Haley of Chicago was credited with leading the opposition to this move. One objection raised against it was that it might interfere with the powers of local teachers' federations, some of which have affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. Miss Haley and S. Y. Gillen of Milwaukee, were leaders in defeating this "delegate plan" when it was proposed last year.

Hugh S. Magill of Washington, D. C., field secretary of the association, is expected to present the plan, which has been the subject of much study by the association's board of directors.

This is the second time the educators have convened here, the other occasion having been in 1913. Six cities have invited the next meeting and the invitations will be presented formally later in the week. They are New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Des Moines, Iowa, St. Joseph, Mo., and San Francisco. Preliminary meetings have been going on for several days and a patriotic program scheduled as the first general session was carried out last night.

Workingmen's Picnic Speaker Is Arrested

ASTORIA, Ore., July 5.—George F. Van Derveer of Seattle was arrested here on a charge of resisting an officer when he attempted to address a workingmen's picnic, after having been cautioned by Chief of Police Carlson not to do so. Carlson said many of those attending the picnic wore red ribbons and that some distributed I. W. W. literature. Van Derveer gave bail and left later for Portland.

Dock and Deck

Today being a legal holiday, the waterfront was deserted with the exception of a few yachting parties who left the docks in the morning. Not a single vessel or shipyard was working. Several lumber cargoes arrived, but as soon as the craft tied up to the dock the crews were sent ashore for a day's vacation. The vessels in the harbor were decorated with flags.

The steamer Victoria arrived at Seattle from Nome, Alaska, this afternoon with 95 passengers from that port. Captain Warner states that the craft is badly damaged by being crushed in the ice floes near St. Michaels, and that her stern post is badly damaged. Several hundred tons of freight are waiting on the docks for her to take to Nome.

The famous full-rigged ship Chas. E. Moody has finished her career, after 38 years, most of which were spent on the Pacific coast. She was burned to the water's edge, while at anchor in Bristol bay, Alaska, on June 28. No details were given as to crew or the amount of cargo aboard at the time. The Moody was built at Bath, Me., in 1882, and for many years plied out of this port to off-shore ports. She was sold to the Northwestern Fisheries Company, who owned and operated her up to the time she was lost. The craft was 2003 tons register and built of wood.

Captain John Barneson's private steam yacht Invader was towed into Puget sound yesterday by the steam schooner Siskiyou and proceeded to Victoria. No further news of her has been received.

The ship Muscoota, which has been loading redwood at Eureka for the past ten days, is ready to leave there for this port. She will come here to have new topmasts and rigging placed on her, as she lost her sails and rigging while making port on her last voyage. Her cargo is consigned to Australia. The craft was recently purchased by Victor S. Fox & Co of New York, from the United States Shipping Board.

Note—In the above tabulation of tides, the daily tides are given in the order of their occurrence, commencing with the early morning tide in the left-hand column and the succeeding tides as they occur. On some days but three tides occur, the fourth tide occurring on the following morning.

DIFFERENCE IN TIME FAVORS AFTERNOON NEWSPAPERS

The geographical advantage of the Pacific Coast afternoon papers is apparent at a glance at the diagram below. The news of the world comes to the TRIBUNE over its four leased wires in time for publication the SAME DAY IT HAPPENS. When the day's work is over in New York (6 p. m.) the TRIBUNE is just going to press with the day's news complete.

In other words, at TRIBUNE press time, (3:00 p. m.) it is 6:00 p. m. in Washington, D. C., 11:00 p. m. in London, 11:00 p. m. in PARIS, and so forth.

No wonder the TRIBUNE consistently scoops the morning newspapers, no wonder why day after day, year after year, the newspaper reader when he takes up his morning paper sees the same things staring him in the face that he saw in his afternoon paper of the day before. The "news" that he reads happened the day before and was printed in the afternoon editions. It is old news, stale, flat and unprofitable.

All newspaper men know this, but strange as it may seem some readers of newspapers do not yet understand why morning newspaper headlines are repetitions, in sense if not in words, of the lines they beheld the afternoon preceding.

A tremendous increase in the number, quality and circulation of afternoon newspapers has been the natural result of these facts, as the reading public more and more, sees the evening paper, first on all important news.

Associated Press
(Exclusive in Alameda County)

During the year 1919 the Associated Press grew greatly in membership, vastly increased the comprehensiveness of its news-gathering facilities throughout the world, and extended its membership by the inclusion of thirty of the most important journals in South America.

With the beginning of 1920, it started its report to the Philippines. Thus, papers from Alaska to Argentina and from Manila to Havana are included in this world's largest news-gathering organization of over 1250 members.

Perhaps it is no exaggeration to say that the Associated Press is the most striking instance of cooperative effort extant. Although its members include publishers of papers not only in the English language, but also in Spanish, French, Italian, Portuguese and German, and although every shade of political, racial and social opinion is represented, in news-gathering they are united in the simple effort to ascertain the truth and disseminate it as expeditiously as is consistent with accuracy.

The TRIBUNE is the only Alameda County member of the Associated Press.

Full United Press

One of the notable improvements in the transmission system of the United Press was the establishment of an express trunk wire system between New York and Chicago with but one drop located at Cleveland. This trunk is probably the fastest wire operated by any press association in America. This arrangement has permitted a general reorganization of the United Press wire system resulting in the organization of a number of new state and regional district circuits affording an increased opportunity of giving each publisher a superior state service and bringing the Eastern news that much quicker to The TRIBUNE.

International News Service

During the year there were added more than 1500 miles of leased wire to the International News Service System. The total wire length of the International News Service System now exceeds 26,000 miles. International News Service now maintains 24 bureaus in as many cities, in addition to hundreds of correspondents and many connections with important independent news-gathering agencies here and abroad covering every field of interest.

The Washington bureau, under direction of William Philip Simms, employs eighteen high-class news writers; the New York bureau, under Barry Faris, employs a staff of twenty-six men and women; there are six men in the London bureau; three men in the Paris bureau; two men at Berlin; six men at Chicago; four men at San Francisco, and so on, all furnishing the world news for TRIBUNE readers.

Universal Service

Departing from the minor news fields, Universal has created a service of high-class features predicated on the happenings of the day but different in character and handling from the routine product of other press associations. Universal stories serve to illuminate, interpret and adorn the daily spot news reports.

With staffs in Washington, New York, Chicago, London, Paris, Berlin and other news centers, Universal furnishes the utterances of the world's greatest figures on the world's vital developments.

The TRIBUNE is the ONLY CALIFORNIA NEWSPAPER giving these four combined services to its readers.

NEURITIS, RHEUMATISM AND INFLAMMATION OF THE NERVES, STOMACH TROUBLE RELIEVED. THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIAL PROVES:

Oakland, March 2, 1919

I suffered from neuritis (inflammation of the nerves) in the back of my head extending upward from the spine. It was so painful I almost lost consciousness and was unable to work for months. I also have rheumatism in my joints for years.
Having tried many doctors and treatments without results, I did not know what to do. My friend, Mr. Wettrig, the shoe merchant at 482 Seventh street, Oakland, who had been cured of stomach trouble and constipation by drinking Fong Wan Herb Tea, urged me to try it. Now after having drunk the herb tea for three weeks, I am perfectly well, far better than I have been for years.

SING SPECIALISTS TREAT SKIN ILLS

When the organs of the body are not functioning properly they secrete poisons and impurities that the blood carries throughout the system. Very often these impurities manifest themselves in torturing, unsightly skin troubles. In treating skin diseases of all sorts the Sing Herb Specialists adopt the very natural course of purifying the blood first and then restoring the poorly functioning organs to normal. Their successes with skin diseases and every other known ill are recited in the thousands of grateful glowing testimonials on file in their offices.

HOUSES FOR SALE

A 1920 Bungalow at a 1915 Price

Bungalows sold in 1915 for about 40% less than now. This bungalow was contracted for at a 1915 price, was built in 1917 and is just as up-to-date as those being erected right now. It isn't worn, there are no cracks and the only possible improvement might be a little painting on the trimmings. It is of cement, contains 5 rooms and is located in the prettiest part of Albany, convenient to Berkeley and Richmond and within 1½ blks. of S. F. transportation and 2 blks. of school. Similar bungalows now selling for $5250. My price $4000 on terms of $2000 down and balance can remain. If you have the necessary cash you can make it count by buying this place. Address R. F. FIREWORKS SET SCORES OF FIRES OVER BAY CITIES

Young America's celebration of the Fourth yesterday was responsible for many fires, and the Oakland fire department set a new record for any previous twenty-four hours, responding to seventy-two alarms during the day. With the exception of one fire, which was caused by crossed electric wires in the home of W. M. Gray, 1116 Sixty-sixth avenue, the total fire loss of the day did not exceed $2000.

The Gray residence was almost destroyed, but most of the furnishings were saved. The loss is estimated at $3000. Battalion Chief Dorman and five fire companies fought the blaze, which had gained great headway before it was discovered.

The only other serious fire of the day was at Ninth and Jefferson streets, where three firemen were slightly burned when the roof of a wooden house caved in after it had been set on fire by fireworks. The injured firemen were William Dutra, William Dabbert and John F. Warner. Their injuries were slight.

Chief Whitehead urges that householders today should wet down their lawns and roofs before leaving home as a precautionary measure, and points out that this might be the means of preventing a serious loss.

BERKELEY HOMES MENACED

BERKELEY, July 5.—Two fires caused from "contraband" firecrackers formed the extent of Berkeley's contribution to Fourth of July mishaps yesterday.

Anxious to see the "pretty lights," a group of small children set a skyrocket off yesterday afternoon in the vicinity of Stuart and California streets. The rocket landed, a flaming heap, on the roof of the home of W. Heidman, 1610 Stuart street. More than $200 damage was done.

Homes in the vicinity of Gilman and Curtis streets were threatened by a grass fire yesterday afternoon, caused by firecrackers set off in the dry weeds.

A third blaze yesterday at the home of T. H. Means, 3004 College avenue, proved the extent of the fire department's activities for the day. Sparks from the chimney set fire to the roof, causing damage of $50.

FOUR AT ALAMEDA

ALAMEDA, July 5.—Five dollars will pay for the total fire losses in Alameda yesterday, according to Fire Chief Walter Steinmetz, who states that five alarms were turned in.

Two roof fires, two grass fires and a false alarm constituted the record. Last year there were eleven alarms. Chief Steinmetz believes that repeated warnings during the last few days and the effect of the anti-fire campaign resulted in more care being taken by householders and others. During the last few days the fire department burned the dry grass from practically every vacant lot in Alameda as a precautionary measure over the Fourth.

SPOKANE BLAMES EXPLOSIVES

SPOKANE, Wash., July 5.—Thirty-seven fires, all in residence districts, and all but three attributed to explosives, called out the Spokane fire department in the twenty-four hours ended at midnight. Aggregate damage is estimated at $25,000.

AUTO VICTIM AIDED.

Senator James D. Phelan and J. J. Tovey, 160 Eddy street, San Francisco, were the good Samaritans who yesterday took George Rogers, 16, 1725 Twenty-first street, to the emergency hospital for treatment after his automobile had turned over in Haywards. Rogers, who is employed at the Bethlehem shipyards, was treated for serious scalp wounds and a laceration over the left eye.

Many Are Killed Or Hurt in Auto and Train Collisions

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—One person was killed, two men suffered probable fatal injuries and nine others sustained minor injuries in accidents here yesterday.

GIOVANNI BOZZI of Colma was killed.

JOHN MACKAY of San Francisco was run down, receiving a fractured skull which may result in death.

PATRICK DALY, motorman, both legs amputated; not expected to live.

Others injured are:

MRS. HAZED HAMMETT, Modesto; internal injuries.

FLORENCE HERBERT, 2415 California street; cuts and bruises.

MRS. MARY COX, 312 Andover street; cuts and bruises.

MRS. D. SANTA CRUZ, 312 Andover street; cuts and bruises.

FELIX ALEXANDER, 3423 Mission street; cuts and bruises.

DR. F. M. SHAY, 531 Miranuır avenue; compound fracture of left leg.

X. RATTO, Colma; cuts and bruises.

THERESA RATTO, Colma; fracture of the jaw.

B. RATTO, Colma; fracture of right hand and left leg and serious internal injuries.

AUTO CRASHES INTO STREET CAR

The Rattos were riding with Bozzi, who was killed, on the Mission viaduct when their automobile crashed head-on into a Mission street car last night.

John Mackay and Florence Herbert were injured in the afternoon. They were walking on the great highway when struck down by a machine driven by Wallace Dearman, 5647 Miles avenue, Oakland.

Mrs. D. Santa Cruz, Felix Alexander, Mrs. Mary Cox and James Cox all received injuries when the latter, who was driving, turned a corner too sharply at Eleventh and Market streets, causing the car to overturn.

DOCTOR STRUCK GIVING HELP

Dr. Shay was a passenger on the street car struck by Bozzi's car on the Mission viaduct. As he stepped from the car to to give aid to Bozzi and the Rattos, he was struck down by a speeding automobile which ran over the body of Bozzi and continued with speed undiminished on its way.

Patrick Daly, motorman on a Geneva street car, was caught under the wreckage made by a collision between his car and one ahead of him on Mission street, near France, last night. Daly was caught when his car crashed into the one ahead. It is said Daly's air brakes failed him.

The fire department was called to free the motorman, whose legs were so badly crushed that amputation of both was necessary at a hospital.

SOLDIER AND SAILOR HURT AT IDORA.

A soldier and a sailor received slight injuries last night while riding on the Race Through the Clouds at Idora park. Earl Hanen, 16, Mare Island, had the great toe on his left foot fractured when he put his foot outside the car, and Private Abraham Liff, 22, Presidio, received an abrasion of the leg in the same manner.

HIT BY TRAIN; SERIOUSLY HURT

J. J. Kerr, 917 Aileen street, was treated at the Emergency hospital for possible concussion of the brain and other injuries received when he was struck by a Key Route train at Adeline and Arlington streets last night. He was unable to say how the accident occurred.

FOUR INJURED DURING CELEBRATION

Fire cracker: were the cause of four patients being admitted to the Emergency hospital yesterday. Nine-year-old Andrew Witt, 1012 Thirty-fourth street, was the first patient to arrive. His right hand had been severely burned by an exploding firecracker. He was followed by W. H. Dutra, W. G. Dabbert and John F. Warner, who fell from a roof at Ninth and Jefferson streets while fighting a fire that had been caused by a firecracker. Their injuries were not serious.

PHEDAN AND FAY AID WRECK VICTIMS

George Rogers, 22, 1725 Twenty-first street, this city, was rescued yesterday from the wreckage of his overturned car by United States Senator James D. Phelan and Charles W. Fay, postmaster of San Francisco. The latter two were driving behind Rogers when the Rogers car skidded and overturned. Rogers' three companions were not injured. Fay and Phelan rushed Rogers to the Emergency hospital. His injuries are confined to cuts and bruises of the face and body. The accident occurred near Hayward.

SPEEDER FLEES LEAVING VICTIM

John J. Nihen, Southern Pacific clerk, while going to his room at the Hotel Ray today, was struck by a speeding auto and his leg was broken. The auto, according to a report made to the police, did not stop to give assistance. In addition to the fractured leg, Nihen was badly bruises of the face and body.

AUTOS IN CRASH, ARE WRECKED

Two cars were partially wrecked and their occupants slightly injured when machines driven by Mrs. A. L. Summers, 2829 Regent street, Berkeley, and T. E. Brown, 1030 Seventy-fifth avenue, crashed together last night at Ninety-eighth avenue and East Fourteenth street.

CHILD INJURED BY FIRECRACKER

ALAMEDA, July 5.—Eight-year-old Edward Pragentini was badly burned when a firecracker, thrown by a playmate, exploded near him and ignited his clothing. Dr. O. P. Stowe dressed the burns and the lad was removed to the home of his father, Peter Pragentini, 1617 Oak street.

KILLS YOUTH WITH "UNLOADED" GUN

SEATTLE, July 5.—Snapping a revolver which he believed to be unloaded, Erenfeld Thomson, 18, shot and killed Harry Johnson, 18, son of J. A. Johnson, former city superintendent of buildings, at the latter's home yesterday.

EIGHT KILLED IN TRAIN COLLISION

McALESTER, Okla., July 5.—Eight persons were killed and twelve seriously injured, some thought fatally, and ten others suffered minor injuries when a Missouri, Kansas and Texas freight train smashed into the rear end of a carnival company's special about thirty miles south of here last night.

FORMER MAYOR OF BOSTON HURT

BOSTON, Mass., July 5.—Former Mayor John F. Fitzgerald was struck and seriously injured while saving a little girl from being run down by a motor truck yesterday. He suffered a broken leg and other injuries.

RANCHER DIES AS RESULT OF INJURIES

LOS GATOS, July 5.—Michael Broke, well-to-do rancher of San Jose, was fatally injured Saturday night when his automobile plunged seventy feet from the Los Gatos-Big Basin road, 20 miles from here. Mrs. Broke, who was riding with him, suffered minor injuries. Passing motorists took Broke to Redwood Inn in the California Redwood park. He died there at midnight.

SCOUT MASTER AND SCOUT DROWN

TOLEDO, Ohio, July 5.—In a vain attempt to save the life of Edward Shanteau, a Boy Scout, 15 years old, caught in the undercurrent of the Maumee river, Scout Master J. R. Fitkin was drowned yesterday. The scout master and his young charge went down together.

Lions Club delegates to the International Lions Club convention in Denver will be given a send-off at the weekly luncheon of the local club in the Hotel Oakland on Wednesday. The delegates will leave from First and Broadway on Sunday, July 11, with orders to bring the next convention to Oakland.

The question, "Resolved, that the county of Alameda or a lesser area shall adopt a charter for a consolidated city and county government," will be debated with E. A. Vandeventer speaking for the affirmative, and A. W. Beam, president of the Hayward Chamber of Commerce, for the negative at the weekly luncheon of the Oakland Advertising Club on Tuesday in the Hotel Oakland.

The Colusa County Reunion picnic for all local residents formerly living in Colusa county and for Colusa county residents visiting here, will be held in Mosswood Park on Saturday, July 31.

HUSBAND, WIFE ASK DIVORCE ON SAME GROUNDS

Who was guilty of desertion and on what date, are the points of contention that will be fought out in court when the Gibson divorce suit comes to trial. John W. Gibson, salesman for a fire company of San Francisco, filed suit charging that his wife deserted him in Berkeley on September 1, 1918. Mrs. Gibson now files a cross-complaint denying this and charges that her husband deserted her on October 2, 1918.

She also denies that the household silverware and china is community property and affirms that it is her separate property. Mrs. Gibson further charges that her husband has failed to provide for her since the time of separation and asks to be given the decree with costs of suit and the right to resume her maiden name of Ruth Waldron.

Morrison Leads Over Max Gardner in N. C.

BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.
LEASED WIRE TO TRIBUNE.

RALEIGH, N. C., July 5.—Cameron Morrison of Charlotte, today was leading Lieutenant Governor O. Max Gardner of Shelby for the Democratic nomination for governor by 5500 votes on returns from 73 of the 100 counties in the state, according to figures compiled by the Raleigh News and Observer. The count stands: Morrison 50,757, Gardner 45,200. Representative Hannibal D. Godwin has conceded that Hon. L. Lyon has defeated him for renomination in the sixth district.

Patrolman Held On Politician's Charges

RENO, July 5.—Charged with committing battery upon Sardis Summerfield, Reno attorney and a candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator from Nevada, Patrolman George Anderson has been arrested here.

Anderson denies the charges and says the trouble arose when he was trying to keep the streets cleared and ordered Summerfield to leave the street and stand upon the sidewalk. He denies he struck Summerfield, although he says Summerfield made several efforts to grapple with him.

EDUCATOR SEES SCHOOL ADVANCE

Speaking today before the National Council of Education meeting in Salt Lake, H. B. Wilson, superintendent of schools in Berkeley, declared that the educational system of the United States is undergoing the most remarkable progress ever enjoyed in its history.

"With the signing of the armistice development which had been held in check by the war went forward with leaps and bounds," declared Dr. Wilson. "Not only is remarkable physical development in the buying of land and the construction of buildings under way, but just as great progress in the enlargement of plans and in the improvement of methods of teaching is taking place."

Speaking before the national teachers' meeting, Wilson said in part:

"The outstanding lines of progress worthy of special note are as follows:

"The improvement of the physical equipment.

"The increase in the salaries of teachers whereby the best are being held in the profession, and other promising teachers are being drawn into training.

"Teachers are learning not only to plan interesting programs and talk about what should be done, but they are learning to organize and stand together in the employment of business methods for the accomplishment of their purposes.

"The most important progress is in the greater use of scientific procedure and methods in the development of plans for the improvement of schools, and in the execution of the same. Pupils are graded and classified now in ways which break up the lock step and afford to each individual opportunity for training and advancement according to his particular talents and interests.

"Throughout all of this progress there is a measure of democracy actuating the undertaking such as never existed before."

On account of his school and university interests Wilson will return before the end of the teacher session. He went east on Saturday to make four addresses as follows:

Monday forenoon, before the National Council of Education on "Progress in City School Systems"; Monday afternoon, before the Association of Classroom Teachers, on the "Responsibility of the Public Schools for the Future Citizen"; Tuesday morning, before the Normal School Department, on "Why There Should be a Four-year Course for the Training of Teachers for the Elementary Schools"; Tuesday afternoon, before the Society for Visual Education, on the "Concrete in Education."

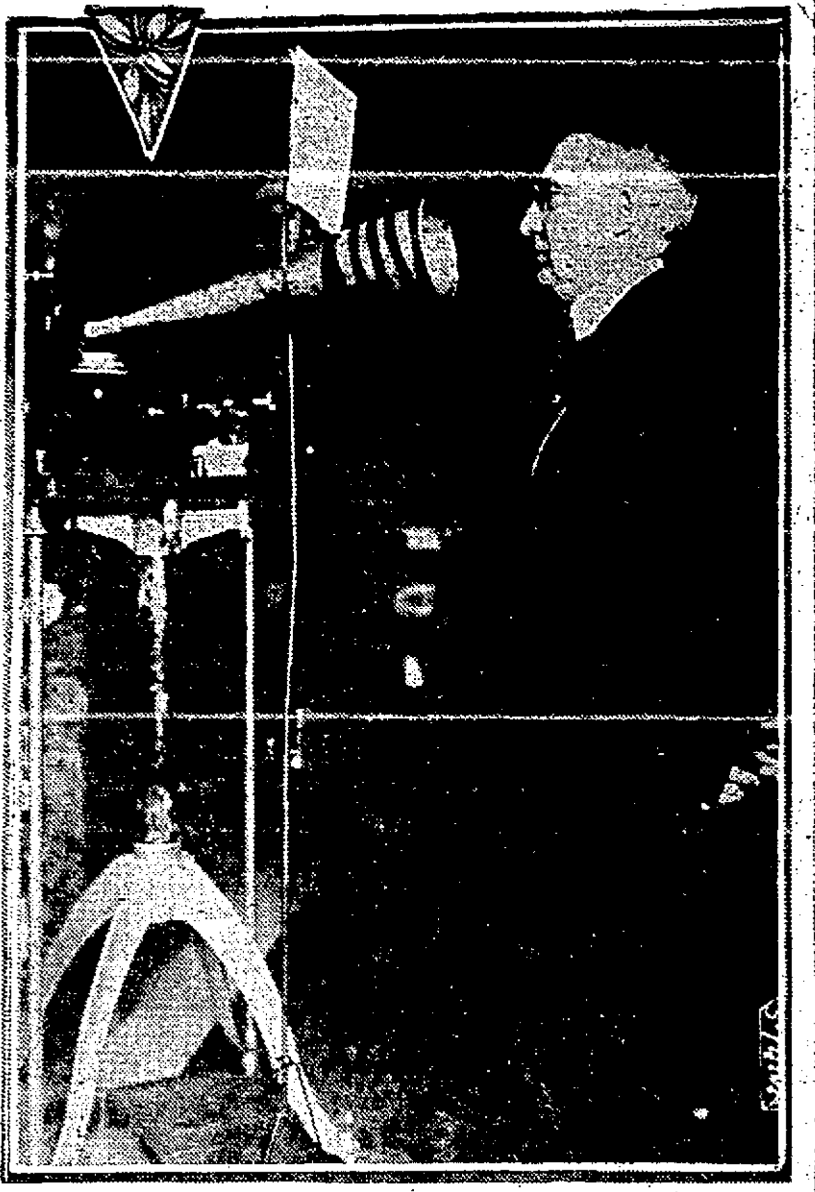
Man Seeks Divorce, Wife Cruel, Claim

Setting forth tht his wife nagged him and subjected him to a course of cruelty, Joseph F. Hunt has today filed a second amended complaint for divorce from Grace A. Hunt. The plaintiff alleges that his wife frequently gave way to unbridled rage, criticised him for being late in arriving at their summer home at Castella and for allowing a portion of his salary to remain uncollected. He says that his attempts to console and comfort her when she was in her tantrums were unavailing. The couple was married in Oakland, April 24, 1914, and separated June 5, 1919. There are no children.

Although Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for president, delivered his first campaign speech in Washington the day after his nomination, he did not violate the precedent which requires silence until after the formal notification and acceptance as he spoke to a phonograph and no one heard him except the operator. His subject was "Americanization." The record will be widely used during the campaign.—Photo Copyright by Underwood & Underwood, New York.



Cafe Man Rough, Is Wife's Divorce Plea

Charging William Heps, proprietor of a restaurant and confectionery store at 1759 Sixteenth street, with flying into rages, when he would throw her out of bed and beat her into unconsciousness, or on other occasions would use abusive language toward her in the store and threaten to throw her out by the nape of the neck, Mrs. Bertha Heps has filed suit for divorce. Declaring that her husband has an income of $800 a month from his business, Mrs. Heps asks for $100 a month alimony, $250 for attorney's fees and costs of suit.

SAILOR, CIVILIAN STABBED.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 5.—In a gang fight at Sixth and Harrison streets, William Grupp, a sailor from the U. S. S. New Mexico, and Albert Downs, a civilian, were stabbed, but not seriously. The police have been unable to learn the cause of the row. Patrick McNamara and Patrick Carter were arrested following the disturbance.

"Yellow Jacket" Given in Forest Theater

One more production in the Forest theater at Carmel has become history. It has firmly established what was in the beginning a hazardous venture as a community affair, with artists and writers of reputation its active sponsors.

"The Yellow Jacket," adapted for outdoor performance, drew the throng to the picturesque spot on Friday and Saturay to witness a sincere rendering of a difficult drama.

To the accompaniment of music, authentically Chinese, the actors unwound the delightful tale. Among those in the cast were: Gordon Davis, Theodore Criley, Kethrene Pinkerton, Effie A. McLean, Evan Royal Mosher, Herbert Heron, Charis Boke, Marion Boke, Theodore S. Solomons, B. M. Duggar, Vasia Anikeef, William T. Kibbler, Mary Mosher, Homer Kallen, Jeane Hoagland, Phyllis Overstreet.

CALIFORNIAN TO HEAD U. S. ELKS

CHICAGO, July 5.—William Martin Abbott of San Francisco was scheduled to be the next exalted ruler and San Francisco was expected to be the next convention city, as more than 150,000 Elks gathered in Chicago today for the biggest B. P. O. E. convention on record. The grand lodge sessions were opened this morning with a meeting at which plans were completed for a parade of marching clubs from 1000 lodges. It is stated that the parade will be fifteen miles long. At a later session a new grand exalted ruler will be chosen. Ceremonies honoring the 70,000 Elks who fought in the world war are to be held today or Tuesday.

One feature of the convention is a daily wild west exhibition on Chicago's lake front. Some 20,000 Elks on Sunday witnessed an attempt by John Brown of Luck, Wyo., to ride "Coyote," California's toughest mustang. Brown wound up in a hospital with a broken hip, "Coyote's" seventeenth victim.

Police Arrest Two Under Poison Law

John C. Fisher, 3014 Benvenue avenue, Berkeley, and Eugene Karland, 685 Sixty-sixth street, were charged by the police this morning with violating the state poison act and with vagrancy. A large quantity of morphine was found in Fisher's possession. He says he is an employee of the Associated Oil Company and had obtained the drug for a friend.
